"Twice the Thrills! Twice the Chills!" Bryan Senn, 2019-02-28 In the mid 1950s to combat declining theater attendance film distributors began releasing pre packaged genre double bills including many horror and science fiction double features Though many of these films were low budget and low end others such as Invasion of the Body Snatchers Horror of Dracula and The Fly became bona fide classics Beginning with Universal International's 1955 pairing of Revenge of the Creature and Cult of the Cobra 147 officially sanctioned horror and sci fi double bills were released over a 20 year period

This book presents these double features year by year and includes production details historical notes and critical commentary for each film Serial Killer Cinema Robert Cettl, 2007-10-18 The release of Silence of the Lambs in 1991 which swept the major Academy Awards categories legitimized the serial killer movie a genre that dates back as far as the silent era From Absence of the Good to Zodiac Killer this reference work allows a detailed study of the development of the serial killer film as a distinct genre with its own character types narrative patterns and styles An introduction outlines the historical evolution of this film genre and covers the whole range of cinematic interpretations from the response to Jack the Ripper and other real life serial killers through the late 1960s to the current state of the genre Arranged alphabetically by title the filmography covers over 500 feature films and select television movies Each entry contains a listing of the film's main credits a synopsis of the film a summary of the film's respective merits and a discussion of how they fit into the themes and structures outlined in the introduction Only films that portray the serial killer as a repeat pattern killer and directly or by suggestion reveal the killer's aberrant sexual motivations or their craving for manipulation domination and control with subsequent desires to punish women or society are included
