The B2 Goes To War:

The B-2 Goes to War Rebecca Grant, 2001 The Kimberlins Go to War Michael B. Murphy, 2016-11-11 As July 7 1861 dawned war was in the air in Lexington Indiana The county seat of Scott County was abuzz with the latest news of the southern rebellion The Madison Daily and Evening Courier told of skirmishes between Federal troops and secesh forces at Harpers Ferry and Falling Waters Virginia Closer to home word had come that William A Sanderson had organized a new outfit the Twenty Third Indiana and was recruiting throughout the Second Congressional District for men to join the regiment Although Scott County had been rife with sympathy and support for the South answering the call to serve the Union cause from the county were Jacob T Kimberlin a twenty one year old farmhand his older brother John J and his cousins William H H Kimberlin Benjamin F Kimberlin and James Stark These five young men could not have known at the time that none of them would ever again see their homes They only knew that the Kimberlins were going to war This is the story of the Kimberlin family that sent thirty three fathers and sons brothers and cousins to fight for the Union during the Civil War Ten family members were killed wounded or died of battlefield disease a 30 percent casualty rate that is unmatched in recorded Scott County history Of the 134 known deaths of Scott County soldiers ten were members of the Kimberlin clan Their feelings about the war come from forty letters to and from the battlefield that have survived to this day The book examines such questions as Were they fighting to save the Union or to free the slaves How did they express grief over the loss of a brother Did they keep up with their business and the women at home And what did they think about secesh neighbors in southern Indiana who tried to undermine the Union The Question, why Do We Go to War? William Burdon, 1803 Aristocrats Go to War Jerry Murland, 2010-07-19 Zillebekes small churchyard military cemetery provides the inspiration for this charming piece of military and social history The author has researched into the exploits and backgrounds of 27 fallen soldiers the majority being officers of the Guards and Cavalry as well as other ranks and six Canadians The outcome is a fascinating and moving book that emphasizes the indiscriminate nature of war Privilege and wealth were no protection against bullets and shells and all men regardless of background took their chances standing shoulder to shoulder The 1st Battle of Ypres in late 1914 was in many ways the last stand of Britains Contemptible Little Army as the Kaiser called it and the Ypres Salient was to remain the focus of so much fighting over the next four years Thanks to detailed research and support from the families concerned the author has unearthed letters memorabilia and photographs Why Do We Go to War? War, 1803 The Case of Going to War Josiah Tucker, 1763 The Question, Why Do We Go to War, Briefly Considered [Anonymus AC10224980], 1803 The U.S. Air Service in World War I: The Battle of St. Mihiel Maurer Maurer, 1979 The U.S. Air Service in World War I, Volume III: The Battle of St. Mihiel , Plants Go to War Judith Sumner, 2019-05-30 As the first botanical history of World War II Plants Go to War examines military history from the perspective of plant science From victory gardens to drugs timber rubber and fibers plants supplied materials with key roles in victory Vegetables provided the wartime diet both in North America and Europe where vitamin rich carrots cabbages and potatoes nourished millions Chicle and cacao provided the chewing gum and chocolate bars in military rations In England and Germany herbs replaced pharmaceutical drugs feverbark was in demand to treat malaria and penicillin culture used a growth medium made from corn Rubber was needed for gas masks and barrage balloons while cotton and hemp provided clothing canvas and rope Timber was used to manufacture Mosquito bombers and wood gasification and coal replaced petroleum in European vehicles Lebensraum the Nazi desire for agricultural land drove Germans eastward troops weaponized conifers with shell bursts that caused splintering Ironically the Nazis condemned non native plants but adopted useful Asian soybeans and Mediterranean herbs Jungle warfare and camouflage required botanical knowledge and survival manuals detailed edible plants on Pacific islands Botanical gardens relocated valuable specimens to safe areas and while remote locations provided opportunities for field botany Trees surviving in Hiroshima and Nagasaki live as a symbol of rebirth after vast destruction
