yours Mae bit her lip She glanced down at her lap then back at Annie again I can share Annie attempted to tell Mae with her eyes alone She snapped her cracker in half simply unable to bear parting with the whole thing and passed it across to the little girl Mae took it and popped the whole thing in her mouth making Annie smile Mae her father said She looked at him wide eyed her mouth full of cracker Whaf dafdda she said muffled spraying a few cracker crumbs onto his trousers He closed his eyes briefly and brushed them off You didn't have to give her any he said to Annie but thanks Annie grunted her way of saying she didn't mind that much She looked down quickly and finished her last bit of food The crackers had been crispy and the cheese silky and smooth They'd tasted like heaven You must be thirsty he said Do you mind sharing She shook her head and automatically lifted two fingers Two's no he asked She nodded pleased and lifted one finger She'd grown up sending signals through the floor of the Ruskins house one stomp for yes two for no It came natural as rain now And one's yes he said catching on quick Annie drank deep when he passed her the flask of water amazed he'd let her drink from it She tried her best to pour it down her throat without touching her lips to the flask so he wouldn't regret giving it to someone so dirty She wished she could tell him thanks but after Mae had her fill and he took his own swallow he was back under his hat likely going over the events of the day How he'd stuck himself with her How he probably regretted even stepping off the train at the last stop She couldn't say she blamed him She hadn't much wanted to marry a stranger herself
