Authorship and Film David A. Gerstner, Janet Staiger, 2013-09-13 Authorship in film has been a persistent theme in the field of cinema studies This volume of new work revitalizes the question of authorship by connecting it to larger issues of identity in film in the marketplace in society in culture Essays range from the auteur theory and Casablanca to Oscar Micheaux from the American avant garde to community video all illuminating how authorship is a complex idea with far reaching implications This ambitious and wide ranging book will be essential reading for anyone concerned with film studies and the concept of the author How Literature Changes the Way We Think Michael Mack, 2011-12-01 The capacity of the arts and the humanities and of literature in particular to have a meaningful societal impact has been increasingly undervalued in recent history Both humanists and scientists have tended to think of the arts as a means to represent the world via imagination Mack maintains that the arts do not merely describe our world but that they also have the unique and underappreciated power to make us aware of how we can change accustomed forms of perception and action Mack explores the works of prominent writers and thinkers including Nietzsche Foucault Benjamin Wilde Roth and Zizek among others to illustrate how literature interacts with both people and political as well as scientific issues of the real world By virtue of its distance from the real world its virtuality the aesthetic has the capability to help us explore different and so far unthinkable forms of action and thereby to resist the repetition and perpetuation of harmful practices such as stereotyping stigma exclusion and the exertion of violence Cherokee Myths and Legends Terry L. Norton, 2014-11-19 Retelling 30 myths and legends of the Eastern Cherokee this book presents the stories with important details providing a culturally authentic and historically accurate context Background information is given within each story so the reader may avoid reliance on glossaries endnotes or other explanatory aids The reader may thus experience the stories more as their original audiences would have This approach to adapting traditional literature derives from ideas found in reader response and translation theory and from research in cognitive psychology and sociolinguistics
