Life and Death in Early Colonial Ecuador Linda A. Newson, 1995 Historical demography for 16th and 17th century Ecuador The book's regional framework reveals major differences in mortality rates Calculates that depopulation in the Sierra during the 16th century was four times that of the Coast Handbook of Latin American Studies v 57 Memoirs From the Edge: Exploring the Line Between Life and Death Jeb Corliss, 2022-04-28 Jeb Corliss is one of the most iconic BASE jumpers and wingsuit pilots of our time and his autobiography is an odyssey into madness Corliss breaks and rebuilds himself time and again learning what only pain and daring can teach The tales he brings back offer insight into the darkness that exists within the mind as well as his own unique way of coping Many grapple with mental illness in one way or another and Corliss gives a glaringly honest view of his struggle while traversing the world's most dangerous sports Exploring the Philosophy of Death and Dying Travis Timmerman, Michael Cholbi, 2020-12-30 Exploring the Philosophy of Death and Dying Classical and Contemporary Perspectives is the first book to offer students the full breadth of philosophical issues that are raised by the end of life Included are many of the essential voices that have contributed to the philosophy of death and dying throughout history and in contemporary research The 38 chapters in its nine sections contain classic texts by authors such as Epicurus Hume Nietzsche and Schopenhauer and new short argumentative essays specially commissioned for this volume by world leading contemporary experts Exploring the Philosophy of Death and Dying introduces students to both theoretical issues whether we can survive death whether death is truly bad for us whether immortality would be desirable etc and urgent practical issues the ethics of suicide the value of grief the appropriate medical criteria for declaring death etc raised by human mortality enabling instructors to adapt it to a wide array of institutions and student audiences As a pedagogical benefit PowerPoints discussion questions and test questions for each chapter are included as online ancillary materials Ageless Nation Michael G. Zey, 2014-06-12 In this intriguing volume futurist and author Michael G Zey imagines a time in which technology has stretched human life spans to four hundred years or more Genetic engineering cloning and stem cell technology will eradicate diseases and allow for nanoscopic repair and maintenance of the body Smart drugs and caloric restriction programs will largely stop aging and ensure healthy bodies and sharp minds indefinitely Grounding his speculation in contemporary scientific research Zey's optimistic vision sees retirement replaced by hiatuses between careers and leisure time spent in multi generational homes Key players in the debate include supporters like Cambridge University scientist Aubrey de Grey who envisions five thousand year life spans and the radical futurist author Ray Kurzweil who foresees the merging of humans and computers Organizations such as the Coalition to Extend Life lobby the government for immortality research funding and find opposition in the President's Council on Bioethics and deep ecologists advocating zero population growth Criticizing current environmental trends as anti progress and anti human Zey's own solutions include controversial measures like human control of weather colonization of outer space and genetically modifying food He concludes that the eventuality of a modern Fountain of Youth is closer than we think Zey's predictions about the future are thoughtful and fascinating

Death, Ritual, and Belief Douglas J. Davies, 1997-07-01 Describing a variety of funeral ritual from major world religions and from local traditions this book shows how cultures cope not only with corpses but also create an added value for living through the growth of afterlife beliefs The key theme of the book is the rhetoric of death the way cultures use the most potent weapon of words to bring new power to life Human identity and its transformation through mortuary rites is explored through the mummies of Chile and Egypt African sacrificial deaths Indian cremations immigrant cemeteries in the USA ancestor rites in Eastern religions and Mormonism and the freezing of the dead in cryonics Research findings are presented on cremation and afterlife beliefs especially reincarnation sensing the presence of the dead and the death of pets in Britain to show how mortuary rituals are constantly changing in response to death as a major feature of the human environment

Death, Ritual, and Belief Douglas Davies, 2002-04-30 Describing a great variety of funeral ritual from major world religions and from local traditions this book shows how cultures not only cope with corpses but also create an added value for living through the encouragement of afterlife beliefs The explosion of interest in death in recent years reflects the key theme of this book the rhetoric of death the way cultures use the most potent weapon of words to bring new power to life This new edition is one third longer than the original with new material on the death of Jesus the most theorized death ever which offers a useful case study for students There is also empirical material from contemporary recent events such as the death of Diana and an expanded section on theories of grief which will make the book more attractive to death counsellors Life and Death in the Andes Kim MacQuarrie,2016-12-13 Kim MacQuarrie tells stories of South America s history from Butch Cassidy to Che Guevara to cocaine king Pablo Escobar to the last survivor of an Indian tribe all set in the Andes Mountains

The Life Course in Old English Poetry Harriet Soper,2023-12-07 The first book length study of the whole lifespan in Old English verse exploring how poets depicted varied paths through life This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details Berlin: Life and Death in the City at the Center of the World Sinclair McKay,2022-08-23 Sinclair McKay s portrait of Berlin from 1919 forward explores the city s broad human history from the end of the Great War to the Blockade rise of the Wall and beyond Sinclair McKay s Berlin begins by taking readers back to 1919 when the city emerged from the shadows of the Great War to become an extraordinary by word for modernity in art cinema architecture industry science and politics He traces the city s history through the rise of Hitler and the Battle for Berlin which ended in the final conquest of the city in 1945 It was a key moment in modern world history but beyond the global repercussions lay thousands of individual stories of agony From the countless women who endured nightmare ordeals at the hands of the Soviet soldiers to the teenage boys fitted with steel helmets too big for their heads and guns too big for their hands McKay thrusts readers into the human cataclysm that tore down the modernity of the streets and reduced what was once the most sophisticated city on earth to ruins Amid the destruction a collective instinct was also at work a determination to restore not just the rhythms of urban life but also its fierce creativity In Berlin today there is a growing and urgent recognition that the testimonies of the ordinary citizens from 1919 forward should be given more prominence That the housewives office clerks factory workers and exuberant teenagers who witnessed these years of terrifying and for some initially exhilarating transformation should be heard Today the exciting youthful Berlin we see is patterned with echoes that lean back into that terrible vortex In this new history of Berlin Sinclair McKay erases the lines between the generations of Berliners making their voices heard again to create a compelling living portrait of life in this city that lay at the center of the world Indigenous Life After the Conquest Caterina Pizzigoni,Camilla

Townsend,2021-03-04 This book presents a unique set of written records belonging to the De la Cruz family caciques of Tepemaxalco in the Toluca Valley Composed in Nahuatl and Spanish and available here both in the original languages and in English translation this collection of documents opens a window onto the life of a family from colonial Mexico s indigenous elite and sheds light on the broader indigenous world within the Spanish colonial system The main text is a record created in

1647 by long serving governor don Pedro de la Cruz and continued by his heirs through the nineteenth century along with two wills and several other notable documents These sources document a community history illuminating broader issues centering on politics religion and economics as well as providing unusual insight into the concerns and values of indigenous leaders These texts detail the projects financed by the De la Cruz family how they talked about them and which belongings they deemed important enough to pass along after their death Designed for classroom use this clear and concise primary source includes a wealth of details about indigenous everyday life and preserves and makes accessible a rich and precious heritage The engaging introduction highlights issues of class relations and the public and performative character of Nahua Christianity The authors provide the necessary tools to help students understand the colonial context in which these documents were produced

Life and Death Jules Albert Franck Dastre, Albert Dastre, 1911 God's Mother, Eve's Advocate Tina Beattie, 2002-12-01 Tina Beattie has written a stunning book on the theology of woman Her stated objective is to discern the place of the female body in the Christian story of salvation and she has done so from the very heart of Christian stylisations of the female the figures of Mary and Eve Beattie has pursued her subject with the aid of French psychoanalytic feminism these writers are preoccupied as is Catholic theology with questions of language and symbolism But she deliberately puts herself at odds with neo orthodoxy and feminist liberal theology she believes that theologians like von Balthasar depart from the best Patristic tradition of Marian theology with disastrous effect Nor does she offer any solace to the Marina Warners of this world in a book which is strong in defence of classical Marian theology She defends with passion and theological insight not only the Virgin Birth the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption but also the perpetual virginity of Mary Virginal desire according to Beattie need not be seen negatively but as an affirmation of the integrity of women s desire before God in a way not dependent on the phallus nor reducible to genitality

The Life and Death of an Ideal Albert Léon Guérard, 1928 The Life of Cesare Borgia Rafael Sabatini, 1914 Life and Death in the Ancient City of Teotihuacan Rebecca Storey, 1992-01-30 Cities arose independently in both the Old World and in the pre Columbian New World Lacking written records many of these New World cities can be studied only through archaeology including the earliest pre Columbian city Teotihuacan Mexico one of the largest cities of its time 150 B C to A D 750 Thus an important question is how similar New World cities are to their Old World counterparts Storey s research shows clearly that although Teotihuacan was a very different environment and culture from 17th century London these two great cities are comparable in terms of health problems and similar death rates

Confronting Death Luis Moris, 2024-09-12 The essays collected for this book demonstrate how Jungian analysts and scholars find Jung s concepts useful companions when confronting death The authors courageously share intimate experiences and memories about the end of life These are precious and helpful essays about the one thing that we will all certainly experience death

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
