Ted Rivera unpacks the mystery of God's will with a simple yet profound look at what Jesus called the two greatest commandments: loving God and loving others. Filled with examples drawn from everyday life, Rivera's book is practical and wise, a welcome primer for any student of the Bible wanting to deepen their understanding of how to follow Jesus rightly. In the end, Rivera concludes Jesus isn't looking merely for consistency in obedience but for obedience in love. Indeed, all our good deeds are utterly worthless if they are disconnected from a heart that beats not only with love for our God but also with love for our fellow human beings. The Heart of Love urges readers toward a deepened faith and a greater imitation of the God who is love.

The Heart of Unconditional Love Tulku Thondup, 2015-04-21 The unconditional love that we all long for can be experienced in the practice of loving kindness. In this popular form of meditation, the love inherent to our own nature is gradually expanded until it embraces infinite beings. Tulku Thondup introduces a new four-stage format for this practice, rooted in the traditional teachings of Tibetan Buddhism. We first meditate on the Buddha of Loving Kindness as a body of unconditional love and receive his blessings. This spontaneously awakens his unconditional love in our heart. We then find the whole world reflecting back to us as a world of love and peace. Finally, we remain in oneness in the realization of ultimate love.
