Parting Knowledge

James Wetzel,2013-08-08 There are forms of knowing that seem either to come from a parting or to require one Paradigmatically in Genesis Adam parts from God in order to join in knowledge with his partner the flesh of his flesh and the result is a bereft but not unpromising knowledge looking like a labor of love Saint Augustine famously some would say infamously reads the Genesis paradigm of knowing as a story of original sin where parting is both damnable and disfiguring and reuniting a matter of incomprehensible grace Roughly half the essays in this collection engage directly with Augustine s theological animus and follow his thinking into self division perversity of will grief conversion and the aspiration for transcendence The remaining ones more concerned with grace than with sin bring an animus more distantly Augustinian to the preemption of forgiveness and the persistence of hell morality and its limits sexual piety strange beauty and a philosophy that takes in confession The common pull of all the essays is towards the imperfection in self knowledge a place of disfigurement perhaps but also a nod to transformation Poems Eric Clough Taylor,1948 Remembering Our Home Sheila Fabricant Linn,Dennis Linn,Matthew Linn,1999 Suggesting that present hurts or certain types of behavior can have their roots in before birth and birth experiences this work integrates prenatal and perinatal psychology with methods of healing prayer
