The May 30 Movement Events And Themes:

The May 30 Movement Richard W. Rigby,1980 From War to Nationalism Arthur Waldron,2003-10-16 This book investigates the warlord period in China focusing on the pivotal year 1924 New frontiers Robert Bickers,Christian Henriot,2017-03-01 In the new world order mapped out by Japanese and Western imperialism in East Asia after the mid nineteenth century opium wars communities of merchants and settlers took root in China and Korea New identities were constructed new modes of collaboration formed and new boundaries between the indigenous and foreign communities were literally and figuratively established Newly available in paperback this pioneering and comparative study of Western and Japanese imperialism examines European American and Japanese communities in China and Korea and challenges received notions of agency and collaboration by also looking at the roles in China of British and Japanese colonial subjects from Korea Taiwan and India and at Chinese Christians and White Russian refugees This volume will be of interest to students and scholars of the history and anthropology of imperialism colonialism s culture and East Asian history as well as contemporary Asian affairs Framing China Ariane Knüsel,2016-04-15 Framing China sheds new light on Western relations with and perceptions of China in the first half of the twentieth century In this ground breaking book Ariane Kn sel examines how China was portrayed in political debates and the media in Britain the USA and Switzerland between 1900 and 1950 By focusing on the political economic cultural and social context that led to the construction of the particular images of China in each country the author demonstrates that national interests anxieties and issues influenced the way China was framed and resulted in different portrayals of China in each country The author s meticulous analysis of a vast amount of newspaper and magazine articles commentaries editorials cartoons and newsreels that have previously not been studied before also focuses on the transnational circulation of images of China While previous publications have dealt with the occurrence of the Yellow Peril and Red Menace in particular countries Framing China reveals that these images were interpreted differently in every nation because they both reflected and contributed to the discursive construction of nationhood in each country and were influenced by domestic issues cultural values pre existing stereotypes pressure groups and geopolitical aspirations Japan and Britain in Shanghai, 1925-31 H. Goto-Shibata,1995-11-17 In Shanghai in 1925 the shooting by a British policeman of Chinese demonstrators developed into a full scale anti British movement while in 1932 Japan bombarded the Chinese areas of Shanghai The book examines how the relations between China Britain and Japan in Shanghai changed over time during the period It investigates the economic aspect of history and businessmen s perceptions as well as the diplomatic and military aspects because economic expansion was one of the most important objectives of Japan in the 1920s Shaping Modern Shanghai Isabella Jackson,2018 An innovative study of colonialism in China examining Shanghai s International Settlement as the site of key developments in the Republican period Educating China Peter Zarrow,2015-09-23 A major study of how Chinese school textbooks shaped social cultural and political trends in the late imperial and Republican period

A History of the Chinese Communist Party Stephen Uhalley,1988 The Jacquinet Safe Zone Marcia R. Ristaino,2008 The Jacquinet Zone in Shanghai is the first example in history of a successful safe zone that provided protection and security to half a million Chinese refugees living in a battle zone during wartime A Modern History of Hong Kong Steve Tsang,2007-07-30 This major history of Hong Kong tells the remarkable story of how a cluster of remote fishing villages grew into an icon of capitalism The story began in 1842 with the founding of the Crown Colony after the First Anglo Chinese war the original Opium War As premier power in Europe and an expansionist empire Britain first created in Hong Kong a major naval station and the principal base to open the Celestial Chinese Empire to trade Working in parallel with the locals the British built it up to become a focus for investment in the region and an international centre with global shipping banking and financial interests Yet by far the most momentous change in the history of this prosperous capitalist colony was its return in 1997 to Mother China the most powerful Communist state in the world
