Blacker, 1971 The Fire in Fiction Donald Maass, 2009-05-06 Discover the Difference Between a So So Manuscript and a Novel Readers Can't Forget We've all read them novels by our favorite authors that disappoint Uninspired and lifeless we wonder what happened Was the author in a hurry Did she have a bad year Has he lost interest altogether Something similar is true of a great many unpublished manuscripts They are okay stories that never take flight They don't grip the imagination let alone the heart They merit only a shrug and a polite dismissal by agents and editors It doesn't have to be that way In The Fire in Fiction successful literary agent and author Donald Maass shows you not only how to infuse your story with deep conviction and fiery passion but how to do it over and over again The book features Techniques for capturing a special time and place creating characters whose lives matter nailing multiple impact plot turns making the supernatural real infusing issues into fiction and more Story enriching exercises at the end of every chapter to show you how to apply the practical tools just covered to your own work Rich examples drawn from contemporary novels as diverse as The Lake House Water for Elephants and Jennifer Government to illustrate how various techniques work in actual stories Plus Maass introduces an original technique that any novelist can use any time in any scene in any novel even on the most uninspired day to take the most powerful experiences from your personal life and turn those experiences directly into powerful fiction Tap into The Fire in Fiction and supercharge your story with originality and spark Fire & Fiction Anne Sophie Riepma, 2021-10-18 Augusta Jane Evans a nineteenth century writer from the American South produced bestsellers in the genre of the domestic novel popular between the 1820s and 1880s Evans was particularly good in creating strong and independent heroines She is best known for her blockbuster St Elmo 1866 featuring the love story of Edna Earl and the passionate St Elmo Murray In Fire and Fiction Augusta Jane Evans in Context Anne Sophie Riepma reconstructs the literary cultural religious social and historical contexts of Evans's work She explores the author's relation to her times and focuses on the way her novels reflect and address the cultural experiences of Southern women Riepma pays particular attention to topics such as the ideology of domesticity domestic fiction the concept of woman's sphere women's role in society middle class culture education and employment for women religion reform political developments and the Confederate War The Book of Fire Christy Lefteri, 2025-01-07 A tender depiction of loss and healing that raises questions about guilt and blame in the age of climate change People As with The Beekeeper of Aleppo Lefteri transports the reader to a once lush and now destroyed world Kristin Hannah 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Nightingale In present day Greece deep in an ancient forest lives a family Irini a musician who teaches children to read and play music her husband Tasso who paints pictures of the forest his greatest muse and Chara their young daughter whose name means joy On the fateful day that will forever alter the trajectory of their lives flames chase fleeing birds across the sky The wildfire that will consume their home and their lives as they know it races toward them Months later as the village tries to rebuild Irini stumbles upon the man who started the fire a land speculator who had intended only a small controlled burn to clear forestland to build on but instead ignited a catastrophe He is dying although the cause is unclear and in her anger at all he took from them Irini makes a split second decision that will haunt her As the local police investigate the suspicious death Tasso mourns his father who has not been seen since before the fire Tasso's hands were burnt in the flames leaving him unable to paint and he struggles to cope with the overwhelming loss of his artistic voice and his beloved forest Only his young daughter who wants to repair the damage that's been done gives him hope for the future Gorgeously written sweeping in scope and intimate in tone The Book of Fire is a masterful work about the search for meaning in the wake of tragedy as well as the universal ties that bind people together and to the land that they call home

The Cinematic Novel and Postmodern Pop Fiction Décio Torres Cruz, 2019-12-05 Décio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cinematic novel and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig's hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire

Blood and Fire David Gerrold, 2003-12-11 With an introduction by D C Fontana The Morthans were physically and mentally superior Descended from humans they were now literally more than human and considered the human race to be little better than animals They would stop at nothing to conquer the remaining human controlled worlds Formerly a never filmed script for Star Trek The Next Generation this conclusion to the Star Wolf trilogy finds Executive Officer Korie and the crew of the Star Wolf answering a distress call from a mysteriously lifeless ship On board the Norway they discover half wave half particle clusters of golden light and a dead man The lights are the energy form of bloodworms a fatal infestation that feeds off the energy of living bodies which scientists on the Norway have developed for use in the Alliance's war against the Morthans Officer Korie's struggle between his conscience and his desire for vengeance will determine not only the safety of the Star Wolf but the fate of the enemies he's sworn to destroy
