Loneragan, 2022-09-16 DigiCat Publishing presents to you this special edition of The Million Dollar Mystery Novelized from the Scenario of F Loneragan by Harold MacGrath F Loneragan DigiCat Publishing considers every written word to be a legacy of humankind Every DigiCat book has been carefully reproduced for republishing in a new modern format The books are available in print as well as ebooks DigiCat hopes you will treat this work with the acknowledgment and passion it deserves as a classic of world literature Menus for Movieland Richard Abel, 2015-09-01 At the turn of the past century the main function of a newspaper was to offer menus by which readers could make sense of modern life and imagine how to order their daily lives Among those menus in the mid 1910s were several that mediated the interests of movie manufacturers distributors exhibitors and the rapidly expanding audience of fans This writing about the movies arguably played a crucial role in the emergence of American popular film culture negotiating among national regional and local interests to shape fans ephemeral experience of moviegoing their repeated encounters with the fantasy worlds of movieland and their attractions to certain stories and stars Moreover many of these weekend pages daily columns and film reviews were written and consumed by women including one teenage girl who compiled a rare surviving set of scrapbooks Based on extensive original research Menus for Movieland substantially revises what moviegoing meant in the transition to what we now think of as Hollywood Magic , 1910 The Million Dollar Mystery Harold Macgrath, 2014-04-18 There are few things darker than a country road at night particularly if one does not know the lay of the land It is not difficult to traverse a known path no matter how dark it is one is able to find the way by the aid of a mental photograph taken in the daytime But supposing you have never been over the road in the daytime that you know nothing whatever of its topography where it dips or rises where it narrows or forks You find yourself in the same unhappy state of mind as a blind man suddenly thrust into a strange house One black night along a certain country road in the heart of New Jersey in the days when the only good roads were city thoroughfares and country highways were routes to limbo a carriage went forward cautiously From time to time it careened like a blunt nosed barge in a beam sea The wheels and springs voiced their anguish continually for it was a good carriage unaccustomed to such ruts and hummocks Faster faster came a muffled voice from the interior Sir I dare not drive any faster replied the coachman I can t see the horses heads sir let alone the road I ve blown out the lamps but I can t see the road any better for that The Million Dollar Mystery. Novelized from the Scenario of F. Lonergan ... Illustrated with Scenes from the Photo Play. (Harold MacGrath: a Sketch of the Author at Work and at Play.). Harold MACGRATH,F. LONERGAN,1915
