Latin America and Existentialism Edwin Murillo, 2023-06-15 Latin America and Existentialism is a preliminary intellectual history prioritising literature and contextualising Latin American philosophical contributions from the 1860s to the late 1930s decades that coincide with the canon's foundational years This study takes a Pan American approach to move the critical focus away from the River Plate a region that has received some critical attention In doing so it focuses on existentially neglected writers such as Brazil's Machado de Assis and Graciliano Ramos Jos Asunci n Silva from Colombia Cuba's Enrique Labrador Ruiz and the Chilean Mar a Luisa Bombal Underappreciated Latin American philosophical voices and existentialism's canonical perspectives allow the author to discuss the many problems concerning the experiencing I of these authors and to consider such existential themes as ethical vacuity forlornness the crisis of insufficiency the conundrum of choice and the enigma of authentic being The concentration on Latin America's existentially hued interest in the human condition is an invitation to the reader to reconsider the peripheral status in the existentialism canon Imagining Windmills Marián Cao, Richard Hougham, Sarah Scoble, 2021-12-30 Imagining Windmills presents a compilation of scholarly chapters by selected authors of global standing in the arts therapies This book reflects the theme of the 15th International Conference of the European Consortium for Arts Therapies ECArTE held in Alcal de Henares Spain birthplace of Miguel de Cervantes This innovative work seeks to further understanding of arts therapy education practice and research and incorporates current thinking from art therapists dance movement therapists dramatherapists and music therapists Writers from Belgium Germany Greece India Israel Italy The Netherlands Spain Sweden UK and USA combine to give an international voice to the book which celebrates cultural distinctiveness while also presenting shared intercultural developments in the professions This interdisciplinary publication explores questions of the unknown and the imagined misconception delusion truth and trust in the arts therapies It enquires into ways in which education and the practice of the arts therapies engage with the imagination as a place of multiple realities which may lead us closer to finding our truth This book will be of interest and relevance not only to those in the arts therapeutic community but also to a broad audience including those in related professions for instance psychology sociology the arts medicine health and wellbeing and education Portable Magic

Emma Smith, 2022-11-15 A history of one of humankind's most resilient and influential technologies over the past millennium the book Revelatory and entertaining in equal measure Portable Magic will charm and challenge literature lovers of all kinds as it illuminates the transformative power and eternal appeal of the written word Stephen King once said that books are a uniquely portable magic Here Emma Smith takes readers on a literary adventure that spans centuries and circles the globe to uncover the reasons behind our obsession with this captivating object From disrupting the Western myth that the Gutenberg Press was the original printing project to the decorative gift books that radicalized women to join the anti slavery movement to paperbacks being weaponized during World War II to a book made entirely of plastic wrapped slices of American cheese Portable Magic explores how when and why books became so iconic It's not just the content within a book that compels it's the physical material itself what Smith calls bookhood the smell the feel of the pages the margins to scribble in the illustrations on the jacket its solid heft Every book is designed to influence our reading experience to enchant enrage delight and disturb us and our longstanding love affair with books in turn has had direct momentous consequences across time Distant Relation

Eoin S. Thomson, 2001-01-24 The Distant Relation breaks down the artificial division between philosophy and literature by weaving contemporary philosophic arguments through close readings of Carpentier Rulfo Paz and Garcia Marquez Thomson draws the reader into the largely uninhabited space between philosophy and literature providing new critical strategies that allow text and reader to respond to the very distance they share These strategies involve a reconceptualization of distance that recognizes the productive and affirmative nature of separation The Distant Relation will attract anyone interested in the ongoing struggle to overcome conventional interpretations of language time and identity within the broader context of philosophical trends and Spanish American studies
