The Power To Change Geography:

The Power to Change Geography Diana O'Hehir, 2015-03-08 Writing about poetry Diana Hehir says I think of poetry as harnessed energy as a marvelous way of taking the chaotic emotion the turbulent perception and recreating them as images that are specific definite directed Miraculously when this process works it's one of expansion rather than diminution the fortunate poet can reach out beyond the walls of separate personality into a general air that everyone breathes I think of my own poetry as intense imagistic surreal and personal and try to write about perceptions which have pushed me toward change or renewal For the last six years Diana Hehir has been writing poetry and has had poems published in Antaeus Kayak Poetry Northwest and Southern Poetry Review Originally published in 1979 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
