"The" State Of The Prisons In England And Wales John Howard, 1784 The Prisons Memory Archive: A Case Study in Filmed Memory of Conflict Jolene Mairs Dyer, Conor McCafferty, Cahal McLaughlin, 2022-09-06 The Prisons Memory Archive PMA explores ways that narratives of a conflicted past are filmed at the site of the experiences and later negotiated in a contested present in the North of Ireland Given the state's failed attempts at establishing an official process for addressing the legacy of the conflict that lasted between 1968 and 1998 there are a number of community and academic initiatives that have taken up this task The Prisons Memory Archive is one such project whose aim is to research the possibilities of engaging with the story of the other in a society that is emerging from decades of political violence The PMA filmed back inside the prisons with those who passed through Armagh Gaol 2006 and the Maze and Long Kesh Prison 2007 which were both touchstone and tinderbox during the 30 years of violent conflict We applied protocols of co ownership where participants become co authors of their own story with the right to withdraw up to the point of exhibition inclusivity to ensure a multi narrative archive with prison staff prisoners visitors teachers chaplains etc and life story telling where leading questions are eschewed in order to return more agency to the participants Currently the full archive made up of 160 walk and talk recordings totaling 300 hours of filmed material is available at the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland where it is preserved and made accessible to the public and a website has been designed for educational use of the archive This collection offers critical reflections on the processes of recording archiving and utilising the archive in its several manifestations e g feature films website and full archive at the Public Records Office The perspectives offer a range of reflections including filming editing archiving web design education and museum practice Annual Report of the Board of Managers of the Prison Discipline Society Prison Discipline Society (Boston, Mass.), 1830 Reports of the Prison Discipline Society, Boston Prison Discipline Society (Boston, Mass.), 1855 The Oxford History of the Prison Norval Morris, David J. Crime, Punishment and the Prison in Modern China Frank Dikötter, 2002 This book is a richly textured social and cultural study exploring the profound effects and lasting repercussions of superimposing Western derived models of repentance and rehabilitation on traditional categories of crime and punishment Welsh prisoners in the prison estate Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee, 2007-06-06 The Committee undertook this inquiry to address concerns about the imprisonment of Welsh prisoners outside Wales At present there are only four prisons in Wales all in the South and there is little provision for juveniles and no prisons for women The overcrowding means that Welsh

prisoners have a reduced chance of serving their sentence near home and reduces the chances of successful resettlement on release The Committee believe there should be new prison places in North Wales separate provision for young offenders and a new approach to women prisoners along the lines suggested by Baroness Corston The report also address concerns about support services for mental illness amongst prisoners the amount of Welsh language provision and education services
