Archangel Raphael Mary LaSota, Common Spaces Between Us Melynn Rust, 2020-01-09 Polarization occurring in the United States today is not only a social concern it's also a spiritual condition of the heart How can we connect with others in the midst of our differences when deep in our hearts we might harbor shadows such as judgment or fear In Common Spaces Between Us Melynn Rust explores this question by inviting readers into the diverse college campus community where she served as chaplain and where much to her surprise and chagrin she found herself struggling at times to connect with students amid differences She was skeptical of Muslim students requesting bidets in the chapel bathrooms She balked at visiting a student in the hospital psychiatric unit She was afraid to publicly stand up for LGBTQ students She butted heads with students who shared her religion but not her beliefs She had presumed she inherently would live out her values to honor the dignity and equality of all yet in her interactions with others she kept bumping into her own shadows stifling connection Ultimately she discovered that true connection happens when we embody practices that recognize honor and nurture the good in both ourselves and others in the common spaces between us

Spirituality in Mission John Amalraj, Geoffrey W. Hahn, 2018-01-03 Authors from eighteen countries give us their perspectives on biblical principles and cultural expressions of spirituality particularly as the church engages in God's mission. The anthology of texts enriches our understanding of the depth and the meaning of being spiritual and the diversity of forms to live out the Christian faith. The issue today is how spirituality should direct and guide a daily life as followers of Jesus in the engagement in the mission of God. No doubt that it has to do with our inner life and our relationship to God but it is in showing our love and concern to others that we prove our love to God according to the Apostle John 1 John 4. Mission without spirituality will only be a human effort to convince people of religious theories. Spirituality without a missionary involvement of the church will not express God's desire that the transforming gospel reaches every person. This book will help you rethink your understanding of what is spiritual, revisit your own spiritual journey and appreciate the different forms of spirituality as they are described and performed around the globe.

Abide Macrina Wiederkehr, 2011-09-01. In the Gospel of John Jesus directs us: Abide in me as I abide in you. This book is an invitation to make the Word of God your home through the practice of lectio divina. Macrina Wiederkehr OSB encourages you to turn the words of Scripture over in your heart as a plough turns over the soil to welcome the seed. In these scriptural meditations the piercing reflective questions and personal prayers lead the reader into a deeper relationship with the Divine. Aware that drawing near the Word of God requires a special kind of presence, the author invites you to breathe in the Word, wait before the Word, walk through the pages of Scripture as a pilgrim and finally abide in an intimate and transforming communion with God. The format of the book lends itself not only to daily personal prayer and reflection but to group faith sharing as well. Macrina Wiederkehr OSB 1939-2020, author of the popular A Tree Full of Angels (HarperCollins) and Seven Sacred Pauses (Ave Maria), was well known for her creative spiritual writings and retreat ministry. She was also a regular columnist for Stepping Stones, the Little Rock Scripture Study newsletter. She lived a monastic life for fifty years and made her home with the Sisters of St. Scholastica, a Benedictine monastery in Fort Smith, Arkansas. Writing and retreat ministry were a part of her evolving call. Visit her personal blog at <http://macrina-underthesycamoretree.blogspot.com>.

The Spiritual Leader's Guide to Self-Care Rochelle Melander, Harold Eppley, 2002-02-01. As spiritual guides, clergy and lay leaders alike often find themselves in need of direction about how to make changes in their personal life and ministry. Rarely, however, do they find a book that presents self-care as an integral part of being a spiritual leader. The Spiritual Leader's Guide to Self-Care gives readers the tools to discern God's intention for their lives and to be faithful to that vision through proper self-care. Arranged in 52 chapters, one for each week of the year, the guide addresses seven themes: Creating a Life Vision, Caring for Yourself at Work, Nurturing Your Relationships, Caring for Your Spirit and Body, Caring for Your Finances, Caring for Your Intellect, and Sustaining a Life Vision. Included are journal writing suggestions, personal reflection questions, and activities for sharing the discovery process with another person, an activity for the coming week, and suggested further resources such as novels, videos, and Web sites.
