Performance of Baroque Music Mary Cyr,2024-10-28 In this collection of essays Mary Cyr explores some of the written and unwritten performance conventions that applied to French and English music of the 17th and early 18th centuries Using composers own notations marks added by 18th century performers historical treatises and pictorial evidence she investigates both vocal and instrumental genres including opera cantatas instrumental chamber music and solo music for the viol and violin Some of the performance conventions remain controversial such as the use of gesture by the French opera chorus and others are still little known such as the use of the double bass for rhythmic and harmonic support in early 18th century

French opera As many of these essays demonstrate French Baroque music allowed performers a wider latitude of nuance and expression than is often assumed today The essays in this volume will be of particular interest to scholars and performers who are interested in adopting a historically informed approach to performing music by Henry Purcell Elisabeth Claude Jacquet de La Guerre Jean Philippe Rameau and their contemporaries Several studies also deal with attributions sources and the discovery of a cantata by Rameau

Music and Sound in Documentary Film Holly Rogers, 2014-11-20 This collection of fourteen essays provides a rich and detailed history of the relationship between music and image in documentary films exploring the often overlooked role of music in the genre and its subsequent impact on an audience's perception of reality and fiction Exploring examples of documentary films which make use of soundtrack music from an interdisciplinary perspective Music and Sound in Documentary Film is the first in depth treatment on the use of music in the nonfiction film and will appeal to scholars and students working in the intersection of music and film and media studies
