Ronald Moore had the incredible experience of working as an assistant trainer in a racing yard during the late 1980s and early 1990s. He has also held a jockeys licence during that time and rode in races. His niece was an international showjumper who represented her country many times before turning to race riding; she rode in two Grand Nationals. Ronald has always been interested in horse racing and showjumping and has owned many racehorses and showjumpers over the years. One of his favourite authors is Dick Francis who wrote many novels based on the horse racing theme. Jilly Cooper famed for her book Riders set in the promiscuous showjumping world is another author he admires. Vengeance is Ronald's first novel and he sought to blend racing and showjumping as the story's backdrop, peppering the action with romance as well as various criminal activities regarding the illegal sale and distribution of drugs. This provides a unique spin on this tried and trusted equestrian theme that has served countless authors so well in the past. Ronald intends to utilise the main characters in this novel in the sequel which he is writing at the moment. He hopes the poignant scenes and moral issues threaded through the story together with the romance and fast paced action will make Vengeance a memorable and enjoyable read.
