

The Jungle Song

To the tune of Twinkle Twinkle Little Star

Tiger, tiger, orange and black,
He's got stripes upon his back.
When he growls, sharp teeth I see.
He's as scary as can be!
Tiger, tiger, orange and black,
He's got stripes upon his back.

Elephant, elephant, large and grey,
Swings his trunk along the way.
His ears are big, his tusks are white,
Don't be scared, he doesn't bite!
Elephant, elephant, large and grey,
Swings his trunk along the way.

Crocodile, crocodile, long and green,
The sharpest teeth you've ever seen.
His legs are short, his mouth is wide,
Get too close and you'll be inside!
Crocodile, crocodile, long and green,
The sharpest teeth you've ever seen.

Hippopotamus wallows and lies,
In the mud right up to his eyes.
Wallowing in the muddy pool,
Keeps his skin so very cool.
Hippopotamus wallows and lies,
In the mud right up to his eyes.

Giraffe, giraffe, so very tall,
He spreads out his legs so he won't fall.
He eats leaves from the tops of the trees,
His long neck helps him reach them with ease!
Giraffe, giraffe, so very tall,
He spreads out his legs so he won't fall.

Lion, lion mighty and strong.
With a very loud roar and a mane so long.
A lioness has no mane,
A cub is a baby lion's name.
Lion, lion mighty and strong.
With a very loud roar and a mane so long.

BOOKS RUDYARD KIPLING, 1912 Literary Music Stephen Benson, 2017-03-02 Music is commonly felt to offer a valued experience yet to put that experience into words is no easy task Rather than view verbal representations of music as somehow secondary to the music itself Literary Music argues that it is in such representations that our understanding of music and its meanings is constituted and explored Focusing on recent fictional and theoretical texts Stephen Benson proposes literature narrative fiction in particular as a singular form of musical performance Literary Music concentrates not only on song and opera those forms in which words and music overtly confront one another but also on a small number of recurring ideas around which the literary and the musical interact including voice narrative performance and silence The book considers a wide range of literary and theoretical texts including those of Blanchot and Bakhtin Kazuo Ishiguro Vikram Seth David Malouf and J M Coetzee The musical forms discussed range from opera to the string quartet together with individual works by Elgar Strauss and Michael Berkeley As such Literary Music offers an informed interdisciplinary approach to the study of literature and music that participates in the lively theoretical debate on the status of meaning in music

City Songs and American Life, 1900-1950 Michael L. Lasser, 2019 Nothing defines the songs of the great American songbook more richly and persuasively than their urban sensibility During the first half of the twentieth century songwriter such as Harold Arlen Irving Berlin Dorothy Fields George and Ira Gershwin and Thomas Fats Waller flourished in New York City the home of Tin Pan Alley Broadway and Harlem Many of these remarkably deft and forceful creators were native New Yorkers Others got to Gotham as fast as they could Either way it was as if from their vantage point on the West Side of Manhattan these artists were describing America not its geography of politics but its heart to Americans and to the world at large In City songs and American life 1900 1950 renowned author and broadcaster Michael Lasser offers an evocative and probing account of the popular songs including some written originally for the stage or screen that America heard and sang and danced to during the turbulent first half of the twentieth century Lasser demonstrates how the spirit of the teeming city pervaded these wildly diverse songs Often that spirit took form overtly in songs that portrayed the glamor of Broadway of the energy and jazz age culture of Harlem But a city bred spirit or even a specifically New York City way of feeling and talking also infused many other widely known and loved songs stretching from the early decades of the century to the twenties the age of the flapper bathtub gin and women's right to vote the Great Depression and finally World War II Throughout this remarkable book Lasser emphasizes how the soul of city life as echoes in the nation's songs developed and changed in tandem with economic social and political currents in America as a whole Dust jacket flap
