

THE BETA THETA PI.

VOL. XI.

APRIL, 1884.

No. 7.

Whole no. 97

TWO SONGS.

I.

AN OLD ITALIAN AIR.

My hands went over the strings, and a strain from the years long over
Woke to their quickening touch, like the pulse of an olden pain,
And I saw the sun on the uplands, I heard the bees in the clover,
The sound of the running water, the pipe of the far-off plover,
As I saw and heard in a summer that never will come again.

The ghost of a hope re-arisen, the dream of a first love slain,
Came through the twilight grey, where the circling sea-birds hover,
As, with touches that woke the sound of a song I sang in vain,
My hands went over the strings.

Something of youth's lost gladness thrilled out in the answering strain,
I heard a voice on the silence like the whisper of April rain,
I caught the glimmer of eyes that the churchyard grasses cover,
As under the golden starlight, by the waves of God's murmuring main,
For the last, last time, my Love, in the life of your girlhood's lover,
My hands went over the strings.

II.

IN HARBOR.

We have flung the oars ashore and the voyage is ended,
We have anchored the boat, to toss on the tide no more—
Blown into the port at last, by the winds of God befriended,
We have flung the oars ashore.

Far from the cruel storm-wreck, far from the breaker's roar,
We rest in the long-sought haven, from the angry sea defended.
We have found the peace of the waters late's wind never wandered o'er.

Ah, well! but the seas were grand and the skies were splendid
As we watched the waves run white and the rain and lightning pour;
Farewell now to the waves and the waters through which we wended,
We have flung the oars ashore!

James Lindsay Gordon.
