Sorcerer's Apprentice A Journey Through E:

A Sorcerer's Apprentice John Herlosky, 2015-04-01 Follow the fascinating story of one man's journey into the realm of the fantastic the CIA sponsored psychic spies with the ability to extend their consciousness to accurately describe targets not only half a world away but to look into the future as well It all sounded like science fiction to John Herlosky after reading an expose by former member of the CIA's Project Stargate Dr David Morehouse Two years later skeptical but intrigued by the possibilities implied John entered the classroom of Dr Morehouse to find out the truth and never looked back Sorcerer's Apprentice is an autobiographical account of the author's experience learning the CIA sponsored scientifically validated form of extrasensory perception called remote viewing The book chronicles the author's journey from interested skeptic to operational remote viewer working his first mission as well as his former life as a police officer and private military contractor He takes you on a journey from the crushing depths and pathos of the wreck of the Titanic to the fate of a downed pilot missing for 19 years from the first Gulf War Witness the personal turmoil as the author's long held beliefs clash with the powerful implications of his experiences

A Very Different Land Hilary Sunman, 2014-08-21 In this book Hilary Sunman considers the day to day experience of her father Owen who served in the Colonial Agricultural Service from 1928 1950 Weaving together a human and family story she combines her father's work with her own experience as a development economist to discuss colonial policy Focusing on themes such as All the the White Highlands race colonial leadership and the rise of the Mau Mau she looks at the academic training in agricultural science offered as preparation for the colonial service as well as the attraction of Africa and the idealism felt by many young officers Using her family as a case study she examines the realities of life in Kenya for the wives and children of colonial officers as well as for the officers themselves 69 More
