Sorcerers of Dobu Reo Fortune,1932 A classic treatise on primitive sociology and psychology in Melanesia Cover Index
Sorcerers of Dobu R. F. Fortune,2013-09-13 Ever since its first publication in 1932 Sorcerers of Dobu has been recognized as one of the great triumphs of anthropological research and interpretation in the field of ethnography A rich source of information on primitive psychology the book presents sociological analysis of the complex tribal organisation of the Dobuans Originally published in 1932 Sorcerers of Dobu Reo Franklin Fortune,1963 Sorcerers of Dobu Reo F. Fortune,1932 Sorcerers of Dobu. The Social Anthropology of the Dobu Islanders of the Western Pacific ... With an Introduction by B. Malinowski. [With a Map.] Reo Franklin FORTUNE,Bronislaw Malinowski,1932 Sorcerers of Dobu : the social anthropology of the Dobu islanders of the Western Pacific Reo Franklin Fortune,1963 Sorcerers of Dobu R. F. Fortune,2013-09-13 Ever since its first publication in 1932 Sorcerers of Dobu has been recognized as one of the great triumphs of anthropological research and interpretation in the field of ethnography A rich source of information on primitive psychology the book presents sociological analysis of the complex tribal organisation of the Dobuans Originally published in 1932 Hard Times on Kairiru Island Michael French Smith,2021-05-25 This book follows the difficult lives of people living in the village of Kragur in Papua New Guinea They have been in poverty since European contact and now must find a way to become prosperous Understanding Witchcraft and Sorcery in Southeast Asia C. W. Watson,R. F. Ellen,1993-01-01 Witchcraft holds a perennial fascination for scholars and the public at large In Southeast Asia malign magic and sorcery are part of the routine experience of villagers and urban dwellers alike and stories appearing in the press from time to time bear witness to a persisting public concern The essays presented in this volume describe what people believe and what actions result from those beliefs Not surprisingly given the range and variety of cultures considerable differences exist in the region Among some cultures in Thailand and Indonesia for example sorcerers are said to possess spirits that empower them to cause illness and misfortune Elsewhere in Malaysia and Sumatra the power of the dukun derives from the accumulation of arcane knowledge and mystical practice Contributors describe the witches and sorcerers they have met and suggest both how their societies look upon them and how we in turn should regard them Understanding Witchcraft and Sorcery in Southeast Asia will appeal to scholars and students of social anthropology and comparative religion Its substantial contribution to theoretical and comparative issues in a Southeast Asian context provides a fresh perspective on a stimulating topic Big Brains and the Human Superorganism Niccolo Leo Caldararo,2017-09-05 This book examines why humans have big brains what big brains enable us to do and how specialized brains are associated with eusociality in animals It explores why brains expanded so slowly and then why they stopped growing This book whittles down the theories on brain size evolution to a few that represent testable hypotheses to identify logical and practical explanations for the phenomenon At the core of this book is data derived from original previously unpublished research on brain size in a number of social mammals

This data supports the idea that evolution of the brain in humans is the result of social interaction This book also traces the products of the social brain ideology religion urban life housing and learning and adapting to dense complex social interactions It uniquely compares brain evolution in social animals across the animal kingdom and examines the nature of the human brain and its evolution within the social and historical context of complex human social structures Taboo Don Kulick, Margaret Willson, 2003-09-02 Taboo looks at the ethnographer and sexuality in anthropological fieldwork and considers the many roles that sexuality plays in the anthropological production of knowledge and texts How does the sexual identity that anthropologists have in their home society affect the kind of sexuality they are allowed to express in other cultures How is the anthropologists sexuality perceived by the people with whom he or she does research How common is sexual violence and intimidation in the field and why is its existence virtually unmentioned in anthropology These are but a few of the questions to be confronted exploring from differing perspectives the depth of the influence this tabooed topic has on the entire practice and production of anthropology A long overdue text for all students and lecturers of anthropology many post fieldwork readers will find a resonance of issues they have previously faced or tried to avoid and those who are still to undertake fieldwork will find articles that refer to other kinds of personal and professional experience as well as providing invaluable preparations for coping in the field Austronesian Paths and Journeys James J. Fox, 2021-05-18

This is the eighth volume in the Comparative Austronesian series The papers in this volume examine metaphors of path and journey among specific Austronesian societies located on islands from Taiwan to Timor and from Madagascar to Micronesia These diverse local expressions define common cultural conceptions found throughout the Austronesian speaking world

Loon Henry S. Sharp, 2004-01-01 In an unforgettable journey through the symbolic universe and daily life of the Chipewyan of Mission his work uses the context and meaning of the loon encounter to show how spirits are an actual and almost omnipresent aspect of life Culture and Dignity Laura Nader, 2012-08-31 In Culture and Dignity Dialogues between the Middle East and the West renowned cultural anthropologist Laura Nader examines the historical and ethnographic roots of the complex relationship between the East and the West revealing how cultural differences can lead to violence or a more peaceful co existence Outlines an anthropology for the 21st century that focuses on the myriad connections between peoples especially the critical intercultural dialogues between the cultures of the East and the West Takes an historical and ethnographic approach to studying the intermingling of Arab peoples and the West Demonstrates how cultural exchange between the East and West is a two way process Presents an anthropological perspective on issues such as religious fundamentalism the lives of women and children notions of violence and order Allopathy Goes Native Agnes Loeffler, 2017-03-30 Allopathy is often described as western medicine the antithesis of homeopathy yet all medical systems are infused with culture specific values ideas and beliefs Agnes Loeffler s insightful and original book investigates how allopathic knowledge theories and practice guidelines come to be understood and applied by practitioners in a non western context Based on research amongst doctors in Iran Loeffler describes how the system of allopathic medicine has adapted to local explanations of health and disease and to the economic social and religio political realities framing contemporary Iranian life and culture This approach simultaneously problematizes the view of allopathic medicine as a western entity exerting a hegemonic influence over non western cultures and provides a rare glimpse of the complexities of modern Iran society exploring the interfaces between culture health and the experience of illness Edmund Leach Stanley J. Tambiah, 2002-02-14 Intellectual biography of Edmund Leach a leading social anthropologist of his generation with illustrations Death and the Regeneration of Life Maurice Bloch, Jonathan Parry, 1982-12-30 It is a classical anthropological paradox that symbols of rebirth and fertility are frequently found in funerary rituals throughout the world The original essays collected here re examine this phenomenon through insights from China India New Guinea Latin America and Africa The contributors each a specialist in one of these areas have worked in close collaboration to produce a genuinely innovative theoretical approach to the study of the symbolism surrounding death an outline of which is provided in an important introduction by the editors The major concern of the volume is the way in which funerary rituals dramatically transform the image of life as a dialectic flux involving exchange and transaction marriage and procreation into an image of a still transcendental order in which oppositions such as those between self and other wife giver and wife taker Brahmin and untouchable birth and therefore death have been abolished This transformation often involves a general devaluation of biology and particularly of sexuality which is contrasted with a more spiritual and controlled source of life The role of women who are frequently associated with biological processes mourning and death pollution is often predominant in funerary rituals and in examining this book makes a further contribution to the understanding of the symbolism of gender The death rituals and the symbolism of rebirth are also analysed in the context of the political processes of the different societies considered and it is argued that social order and political organisation may be legitimated through an exploitation of the emotions and biology Child Survival Nancy Scheper-Hughes, 2012-12-06 of older children adults and the family unit as a whole These moral evaluations are in turn influenced by such external contingencies as population demography social and economic factors subsistence strategies household composition and by cultural ideas concerning the nature of infancy and childhood definitions of personhood and beliefs about the soul and its immortality MOTHER LOVE AND CHILD DEATH Of all the many factors that endanger the lives of young children by far the most difficult to examine with any degree of dispassionate objectivity is the quality of parenting Historians and social scientists no less than the public at large are influenced by old cultural myths about childhood innocence and mother love as well as their opposites The terrible power and significance attributed to maternal behavior in particular is a commonsense perception based on the observation that the human infant specialized as it is for prematurity and prolonged dependency simply cannot survive for very long without considerable maternal love and care The infant's life depends to a very great extent on the good will of others but most especially of course that of the mother Consequently it has been the fate of mothers throughout history to appear in strange and distorted forms They may appear as larger than life or as invisible as all powerful and destructive or as helpless and angelic Myths of the maternal instinct compete historically with myths of a universal infanticidal impulse

Migration and Making an Income in the Context of 'Human Trafficking' Anna S. Hüncke, 2023-06-09 The book focuses on volatile processes at the South African Zimbabwean border that arise from practices of migration and income generating activities The processes are influenced by neoliberal developments and controversial discourses on migration commercial sexual services and human trafficking In this unstable environment different actors continuously negotiate trying to achieve stable positions By addressing issues related to migration and income generating activities they maneuver between legal rules and their own moral values and interests In their attempt to classify incidents in the border context that are unclear to them actors explanations are partly based on the concept of transnational human trafficking Thereby they transfer the impenetrability discursively associated with this concept to what they see as obscure cross border migration disconcerting sexual services and other alienating economic activities Alternatively actors understand undocumented cross border migration commercial sexual services and other illegalised income generating activities as common everyday practices at the border and also assume that human trafficking does not play an important role there

Harvests, Feasts, and Graves Ryan Schram, 2018-04-15 Ryan Schram explores the experiences of living in intercultural and historical conjunctures among Auhelawa people of Papua New Guinea in Harvests Feasts and Graves In this ethnographic investigation Schram ponders how Auhelawa question the meaning of social forms and through this questioning seek paths to establish a new sense of their collective self Harvests Feasts and Graves describes the ways in which Auhelawa people and by extension many others produce knowledge of themselves as historical subjects in the aftermath of diverse and incomplete encounters with Christianity capitalism and Western values Using the contemporary setting of Papua New Guinea Schram presents a new take on essential topics and foundational questions of social and cultural anthropology If as Marx writes the tradition of all dead generations weighs like a nightmare on the brains of the living Harvests Feasts and Graves asks Which history weighs the most And how does the weight of history become salient as a ground for subjective consciousness Taking cues from postcolonial theory and indigenous studies Schram rethinks the ontological turn in anthropology and develops a new way to think about the nature of historical consciousness Rather than seeing the present as either tragedy or farce Schram argues that contemporary historical consciousness is produced through reflexive sociality Like all societies Auhelawa is located in an intercultural conjuncture yet their contemporary life is not a story of worlds colliding but a shattered mirror in which multiple Auhelawa subjectivities are possible
