out all the pots. Then I have stood on the peaky mountain wrapped in rainbows, with a harp and sword in my hands.

W. Barnes,2023-08 In this candid timely collection of poetry and poetic prose author M W Barnes captures the essence and emotional undertones of life love loss and sorrow As a collective voice of hope healing challenge and despair Sorrow s Kitchen raises many questions and offers some solutions to the issues of racism inequality and man s inhumanity to man Designed to raise awareness and fuel discussion Sorrow s Kitchen takes on the very issues that confront and divide our society today Issues of love hate and politics run unapologetically throughout While many of Sorrow s Kitchen s poems offer a conscious voice to pain and suffering there are those that also offer a lighter tone of humor and soul searching Others highlight the strength and importance of community offering hope and a promise of a brighter tomorrow This literary masterpiece seeks to shine a spotlight on the many problems we confront as a result of racism and ongoing issues of class culture Make a cup of tea and take the journey to a candid conversation as we settle into the comforts of M W Barnes kitchen
