Experience Allan Køster, Ester Holte Kofod, 2021-12-30 This innovative volume examines the phenomenological existential and cultural dimensions of grief experiences It draws on perspectives from philosophy psychology and sociocultural studies to focus on the experiential dimension of grief moving beyond understanding from a purely mental health and psychiatry perspective The book considers individual shared and collective experiences of loss Chapters explore the intersections between the profound existential experiences of bereavement and how this is mediated by sociocultural norms and practices It points to new directions for the future conceptualization and study of grief particularly in the experiential dimension Drawing on a range of interdisciplinary perspectives this important book will appeal to academics researchers and students in the fields of death and bereavement studies wellbeing and mental health philosophy and phenomenological studies The Sacred Path Beyond Trauma Ellen Macfarland, Ph.D., 2008-06-03 One of Graham Greene's characters famously said I suffer therefore I am suggesting that pain is an inescapable and perhaps incurable part of the human condition But must this be so Ellen Macfarland argues otherwise in The Sacred Beyond Trauma Through the use of mythology stories from film and fiction real life examples and her personal history Macfarland shows that healing trauma is indeed possible using rich resources near at hand in nature The book explores major symbols of healing nature that can provide an impetus for personal transformation One of the case studies profiles Monty Roberts a well known horse trainer who overcame significant childhood abuse by working with horses and eventually fostering some forty children alongside his own biological family The key says Macfarland is using these and other natural symbols such as yin yang to balance the tension between trauma and numinosity sacredness transcendence resulting in the creation of a new way of being in the world Understanding this and the book's other nature based symbols can turn the distressed mind into a fertile field of spiritual awareness empowerment and lifelong growth

Grief Worlds Matthew Ratcliffe, 2023-01-24 A wide ranging philosophical exploration of what it is to experience grief and what this tells us about human emotional life Experiences of grief can be bewildering disorienting and isolating everything seems somehow different in ways that are difficult to comprehend and describe Why does the world as a whole look distant strange and unfamiliar How can we know that someone is dead while at the same time find this utterly unfathomable impossible Grief Worlds explores a host of philosophical questions raised by grief showing how philosophical inquiry can enhance our understanding of grief and vice versa Throughout the book Matthew Ratcliffe focuses on the phenomenology of grief what do experiences of grief consist of how are they structured and what can they tell us about the nature of human experience more generally While acknowledging the diversity of grief Ratcliffe sets out to identify its common features Drawing extensively on first person accounts he proposes that grief is a process that involves experiencing comprehending and navigating a pervasive disturbance of one's experiential world Its course over time depends on ways of experiencing and relating to other people both the living and the dead Along with its insights into the workings of grief the book provides us with a broader philosophical perspective for thinking about human emotional experience

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying: An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Depth Psychology Dennis Patrick Slattery,2004-10 Developed in the spirit of C G Jung and extended by the work of James Hillman Depth Psychology Meditations in the Field grows directly from the soil of the Romantic Movement of the 19th century itself a rebellion against the legacy of Enlightenment fundamentalism which emphasized the literal reality of the world and feasted on Measurement and the quantification of all knowledge Marked by Fire Patricia Damery,Naomi Ruth Lowinsky,2012 This life is the way the long sought after way to the unfathomable which we call divine The Red Book Marked by Fire Stories of the Jungian Way is a collection that includes and illuminates the inner life When Soul appeared to C G Jung and demanded he change his life he opened himself to the powerful forces of the unconscious He recorded his inner journey his conversations with figures that appeared to him in vision and in dream in The Red Book Although it would be years before The Red Book was published much of what we now know as Jungian psychology began in those pages when Jung allowed the irrational to assault him That was a century ago How do those of us who dedicate ourselves to Jung s psychology as analysts teachers writers respond to Soul s demands in our own lives If we believe with Jung in the reality of the psyche how does that shape us The articles in Marked By Fire portray direct experiences of the unconscious they tell life stories about the fiery process of becoming ourselves Contributors to this edition of the Fisher King Review include Jerome Bernstein Claire Douglas Gilda Frantz Jacqueline Gerson Jean Kirsch Chie Lee Karlyn Ward Henry Abramovitch Sharon Heath Dennis Patrick Slattery Robert Romanyshyn Patricia Damery and Naomi Ruth Lowinsky The Wounded Researcher Robert D. Romanyshyn,2020-08-14 The Wounded Researcher addresses the crises of epistemological violence when we fail to consider that a researcher is addressed by and drawn into a work through his or her complexes Using a Jungian Archetypal perspective this book argues that the bodies of knowledge we create degenerate into ideologies which are the death of critical thinking if the complexity of the research process is ignored Writing with soul in mind invites us to consider how we might write down the soul in writing up our research Pathways Into the Jungian World Roger Brooke,2003-09-02 In Pathways into the Jungian World contributors from the disciplines of medicine psychology and philosophy look at the central issues of commonality and difference between phenomenology and analytical psychology The major theme of the book is how existential phenomenology and analytical psychology have been involved in the same fundamental cultural and therapeutic project both legitimize the subtlety complexity and depth of experience in an age when the meaning of experience has been abandoned to the dictates of pharmaceutical technology economics and medical psychiatry The contributors reveal how Jung s relationship to the phenomenological tradition can be and is being developed and rigorously show that the psychological resonance of the world is immediately available for phenomenological description Finding Love and Life David H. Frankenstein, the Monster and the Shadows of Technology Robert D. Romanyshyn, 2019-04-25 In Victor Frankenstein the Monster and the Shadows of Technology The Frankenstein Prophecies Romanyshyn asks eight questions that uncover how Mary Shelley's classic work Frankenstein haunts our world Providing a uniquely interdisciplinary assessment Romanyshyn combines Jungian theory literary criticism and mythology to explore answers to the query at the heart of this book who is the monster In the first six questions Romanyshyn explores how Victor's story and the Monster's tale linger today as the dark side of Frankenstein's quest to create a new species that would bless him as its creator Victor and the Monster are present in the guises of climate crises the genocides of our wars the swelling worldwide population of refugees the loss of place in digital space the Western obsession with eternal youth and the eclipse of the biological body in genetic and computer technologies that are redefining what it means to be human In the book's final two questions

Romanyshyn uncovers some seeds of hope in Mary Shelley's work and explores how the Monster's tale reframes her story as a love story. This important book will be essential reading for academics and students of Jungian and post-Jungian theory, literature, philosophy, and psychology; psychotherapists in practice and in training; and for all who are concerned with the political, social, and cultural crises we face today.
