Sole to Soul Eleanor MacLellan, 2014-07-29. When her teenage son's escalating self-sabotage jeopardized the fragile balance in author Eleanor MacLellan's blended family, she and her husband enrolled him in an alternative high school that required the parents to complete a senior project before their son could graduate. She chose to make a large canvas labyrinth for her church and community with the help of five friends. As the women worked on the physical labyrinth project, they explored the twisting paths of their life stories which traversed the loss of a fourteen-year-old child, a serious teenage auto accident, a family coffin-building tradition, the return of an adult child given up for adoption at birth, a cancer diagnosis and friendships forged in poverty. MacLellan discovered that her real senior project was not just to create a labyrinth but rather to reclaim a strong family and to find a deeper creative faith for the journey ahead.
