John Adams Thacker.1879 Critique of Pure Music James O. Young, 2014-01-09 Why do we value music Many people report that listening to music is one of life s most rewarding activities In Critique of Pure Music James O Young seeks to explain why this is so Formalists tell us that music is appreciated as pure contentless form On this view listeners receive pleasure or a pleasurable musical emotion when they explore the abstract patterns found in music Music formalists believe does not arouse ordinary emotions such as joy melancholy or fear nor can it represent emotion or provide psychological insight Young holds that formalists are wrong on all counts Drawing upon the latest psychological research he argues that music is expressive of emotion by resembling human expressive behaviour By resembling human expressive behaviour music is able to arouse ordinary emotions in listeners This in turn makes possible the representation of emotion by music The representation of emotion in music gives music the capacity to provide psychological insight into the emotional lives of composers and the emotional lives of individuals from a variety of times and places And it is this capacity of music to provide psychological insight which explains a good deal of the value of music both vocal and purely instrumental Without it music could not be experienced as profound Philosophers psychologists musicians musicologists and music lovers will all find something of interest in this book Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuremberg Military Tribunals Under Control Council Law No. 10, Nuernberg, October 1946-April 1949 International Military Tribunal, 1951 Representation in Western Music Joshua S.
