Sound Music Writing:

Human-Centred Computer Audition: Sound, Music, and Healthcare Kun Qian, Gyorgy Fazekas, Björn Wolfgang Schuller, Shengchen Li, Zijin Li, 2023-12-29 Perception, Representations, Image, Sound, Music Richard Kronland-Martinet, Sølvi Ystad, Mitsuko Aramaki, 2021-03-09 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 14th International Symposium on Perception Representations Image Sound Music CMMR 2019 held in Marseille France in October 2019 The 46 full papers presented were selected from 105 submissions The papers are grouped in 9 sections The first three sections are related to music information retrieval computational musicology and composition tools followed by a section on notations and instruments distributed on mobile devices The fifth section concerns auditory perception and cognition while the three following sections are related to sound design and sonic and musical interactions The last section contains contributions that relate to Jean Claude Risset's research The Body in Sound, Music and Performance Linda O Keeffe, Isabel Nogueira, 2022-07-20 The Body in Sound Music and Performance brings together cutting edge contributions from women working on and researching contemporary sound practice This highly interdisciplinary book features a host of international contributors and places emphasis on developments beyond the western world including movements growing across Latin America Within the book the body is situated as both the site and centre for knowledge making and creative production Chapters explore how insightful theoretical analysis new methods innovative practises and sometimes within the socio cultural conditions of racism sexism and classicism the body can rise above reshape and deconstruct understood ideas about performance practices composition and listening sensing This book will be of interest to both practitioners and researchers in the fields of sonic arts sound design music acoustics and performance Sound, Music and the Moving-Thinking Body Osvaldo Glieda, Marilyn Wyers, 2014-07-08 It has long been known that practicing musicians and dancers draw upon interdisciplinary relationships between sound and movement to inform their work and that many performance arts educators apply these relationships in working with aspiring composers choreographers and performers However most material on the subject has been to this point relegated to single chapters in books and journal articles Now Sound Music and the Moving Thinking Body brings together the diverse topics researchers and practitioners across the sector are exploring and raises issues concerning the collaborative aspects of creating and performing new work Sound Music and the Moving Thinking Body is a result of the Composer Choreographer and Performer Collaboration Conference of Contemporary Music and Dance Movement 2012 hosted by the Institute of Musical Research Senate House University of London and the Department of Music at Goldsmiths University of London Sound, Music, and Motion Mitsuko Aramaki, Olivier Derrien, Richard Kronland-Martinet, Sølvi Ystad, 2014-12-04 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post conference proceedings of the 10th International Symposium on Computer Music Modeling and Retrieval CMMR 2013 held in Marseille France in October 2013 The 38 conference papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 94

submissions The chapters reflect the interdisciplinary nature of this conference with following topics augmented musical instruments and gesture recognition music and emotions representation recognition and audience performers studies the art of sonification when auditory cues shape human sensorimotor performance music and sound data mining interactive sound synthesis non stationarity dynamics and mathematical modeling image sound interaction auditory perception and cognitive inspiration and modeling of sound and music computational musicology

The Sound of Architecture Angeliki Sioli, Elisavet Kiourtsoglou, 2022-05-18 How sound and its atmospheres transform architecture Acoustic atmospheres can be fleeting elusive or short lived Sometimes they are constant but more often they change from one moment to the next forming distinct impressions each time we visit certain places Stable or dynamic acoustic atmospheres have a powerful effect on our spatial experience sometimes even more so than architecture itself This book explores the acoustic atmospheres of diverse architectural environments in terms of scale program location or historic period providing an overview of how acoustic atmospheres are created perceived experienced and visualized The contributors explore how sound and its atmospheres transform architecture and space Their essays demonstrate that sound is a tangible element in the design and staging of atmospheres and that it should become a central part of the spatial explorations of architects designers and urban planners The Sound of Architecture will be of interest to architectural historians theorists students and practicing architects who will discover how acoustic atmospheres can be created without complex and specialized engineering It will also be of value to scholars working in the field of history of emotions as it offers evocative descriptions of acoustic atmospheres from diverse cultures and time periods

The Sound of Poetry / The Poetry of Sound Marjorie Perloff, Craig Dworkin, 2009-10-15 Sound one of the central elements of poetry finds itself all but ignored in the current discourse on lyric forms The essays collected here by Marjorie Perloff and Craig Dworkin break that critical silence to readdress some of the fundamental connections between poetry and sound connections that go far beyond traditional metrical studies Ranging from medieval Latin lyrics to a cyborg opera sixteenth century France to twentieth century Brazil romantic ballads to the contemporary avant garde the contributors to The Sound of Poetry The Poetry of Sound explore such subjects as the translatability of lyric sound the historical and cultural roles of rhyme the role of sound repetition in novelistic prose the connections between sound poetry and music between the visual and the auditory the role of the body in performance and the impact of recording technologies on the lyric voice Along the way the essays take on the ensemble discords of Maurice Scève's Die Ezra Pound's use of Chinese whispers the alchemical theology of Hugo Ball's Dada performances Jean Cocteau's modernist radiophonics and an intercultural account of the poetry reading as a kind of dubbing A genuinely comparatist study The Sound of Poetry The Poetry of Sound is designed to challenge current preconceptions about what Susan Howe has called articulations of sound forms in time as they have transformed the expanded poetic field of the twenty first century

Virtual Music Shara Rambarran, 2021-04-08 Virtuality has entered our lives making anything we desire possible We are as Gorillaz once sang in an exciting age where the digital won't let us go Technology has revolutionized music especially in the 21st century where the traditional rules and conventions of music creation consumption distribution promotion and performance have been erased and substituted with unthinkable and exciting methods in which absolutely anyone can explore enjoy and participate in creating and listening to music Virtual Music explores the interactive relationship of sound music and image and its users creators musicians performers audience consumers Areas involving the historical technological and creative practices of virtual music are surveyed including its connection with creators musicians performers audience and consumers Shara Rambarran looks at the fascination and innovations surrounding virtual music and illustrates key artists such as Grace Jones The Weeknd creators such as King Tubby Kraftwerk MadVillain Danger Mouse audiovisuals in video games and performances such as Cuphead and Gorillaz audiences and consumers that contribute in making this musical experience a phenomenon Whether it is interrogating the un-reality of performers modified identities of artists technological manipulation of the Internet music industry and music production or accessible opportunities in creativity the book offers a fresh understanding of virtual music and appeals to readers who have an interest in this digital revolution

Exploring the Ecologies of Music and Sound Makis Solomos, 2023-04-07 Makis Solomos explores the ecologies of music and sound inspired by Felix Guattari for whom environmental destruction caused by capitalism goes hand in hand with deteriorating ways of living and feeling and for whom an ecosophical stance combining various ecological registers offers a glimpse of emancipation a position strengthened today by intersectional approaches Solomos explores environmental mental and social ecologies through the lens of the history of music and current activism especially in the fields of acoustic ecology contemporary music and sound art Several theoretical and analytical debates are put forward including a theory of sound milieu and the biopolitics of sound the relationships between music and the living world soundscape compositions field recording ecomusicology and the creation of sound biotopes the use of sound and music to violent ends as well as considering the social and political functions of music and the autonomy of art sonic ecofeminism degrowth in music and much more

At the Crossroads of the Senses Polina Dimova, 2025-03-04 Inspired by Richard Wagner's idea of the total artwork European modernist artists began to pursue multimedia projects that mixed colors sounds and shapes Polina Dimova's At the Crossroads of the Senses traces this new sensory experience of synaesthesia the physiological or figurative blending of senses as a modernist phenomenon from its scientific description in the late nineteenth century to its prevalence in the early twentieth. Structured around twenty theses on synaesthesia this book explores the integral relationship between modernist art science and technology tracing not only how modernist artists perceptually internalized and absorbed technology and its effects but also how they appropriated it to achieve their own aesthetic metaphysical and social goals. Through case studies of prominent multimodal artists Oscar Wilde Aubrey Beardsley Richard Strauss Aleksandr Scriabin Wassily Kandinsky František Kupka Andrei Bely and Rainer Maria Rilke At the Crossroads of the Senses reveals the color forms and color sounds that for these artists laid the foundations of the world and served as the catalyst for the flourishing exchanges among the arts at the fin de siècle. Rooted in archival research in Russia Germany France and the Czech Republic At the Crossroads of the Senses taps overlooked scientific sources to offer a fresh perspective on European modernism. Sensory studies scholars literary critics and art and music historians alike will welcome its many contributions not least among them a refreshing advocacy for a kind of sensuous reading practice. WorldCALL Mike Levy, Françoise Blin, Claire Bradin Siskin, Osamu Takeuchi, 2011-02-01 As technological innovation continues to affect language pedagogy there is an increasing demand for information exemplars analysis and guidance. What are the common characteristics as well as the inconsistencies of living with and around sound in everyday life? This question drives research in this interdisciplinary area of sound studies it propels each main chapter of this handbook into a thoroughly different world of listening experiencing receiving sensing dreaming naming desiring and crafting sound. This handbook is composed of six sections sonic artifacts sounds and the body habitat and sound sonic desires sounds and machines and overarching sensologies. The individual chapters explore exemplary research objects and put them in the context of methodological approaches historical predecessors research practices and contemporary research gaps. This volume offers therefore one of the broadest most detailed and instructive overviews on current research in this area of sensory anthropology

The Routledge Handbook of German Language Teaching Ruth Whittle, 2024-09-16 The Routledge Handbook of German Language Teaching evaluates and addresses multifaceted multilevel needs of students and teachers within teaching German as a foreign as well as a second language through taking a transcultural approach Each contribution starts with the author situating themselves in the geographical and institutional context in which they teach as well as the way in which they teach for example in person or online This acknowledges the Handbook's internationally widespread contributors from countries with different histories in terms of cultural linguistic and educational diversity more generally and the teaching of German in particular The chapters reflect their voices and consider language learners as people who have their own identities Material such as plays poems short literary texts rap singing and drawing are discussed in this book as being influential for language learners from beginner level and beyond This book proposes that learning happens by both the teachers and the learners going on a journey and both changing the outlook on each other and themselves along that journey Alongside this questions are asked with respect to curricula and the relation between speaking German and belonging in a German speaking country This Handbook will primarily appeal to teachers and instructors of German as well as those training to become German language instructors Moreover the book will appeal to researchers interested in the linguistic and theoretical aspects of German language teaching

Towards a Theory of Musical Reproduction Theodor W. Adorno,2014-11-05 At the beginning of his career in the 1920s Adorno sketched a plan to write a major work on the theory of musical reproduction a task he returned to time and again throughout his career but never completed The choice of the word reproduction as opposed to interpretation indicates a primary supposition that there is a clearly defined musical text whose precision exceeds what is visible on the page and that the performer has the responsibility to reproduce it as accurately as possible beyond simply playing what is written This task according to Adorno requires a detailed understanding of all musical parameters in their historical context and his reflections upon this task lead to a fundamental study of the nature of notation and musical sense In the various notes and texts brought together in Towards a Theory of Musical Reproduction one finds Adorno constantly circling around an irresolvable paradox interpretation can only fail the work yet only through it can music s true essence be captured While he at times seems more definite in his pronouncement of a musical score s absolute value just as a book is read silently not aloud his discourse repeatedly displays his inability to cling to that belief It is this quality of uncertainty in his reflections that truly indicates the scope of the discourse and its continuing relevance to musical thought and practice today
