Michael S. Reynolds, 1999 A living breathing biography that reads like a good novel The stuff of which Pulitzer prizes are made Library Journal starred review Education in France, 1957 Art and Archaeology, 1929 Castaway

Heritage Stephen Silverwood, 2019-12-01 How does it feel to be a castaway in the UK today Our latest book is based on interviews with refugees and asylum seekers living in Brighton and East Sussex and the people who work with those communities It tells their stories in their own words The Castaway Heritage Project was made possible through the generosity of the Heritage Lottery Fund and the support of those involved Woman's Work, 1920 The Niqab in

France Agnès De Féo, 2024-02-06 This original new work is the fascinating result of sociologist and documentary filmmaker Agnès De Féo's ten year exploration of the phenomenon of niqab wearing It is at once a groundbreaking study and a series of compelling first person accounts from French and Francophone women who wear or have worn the niqab in France's Salafi communities With the backdrop of the French government's 2010 ban on full facial veiling in public spaces which itself has shaped the phenomenon De Féo draws on her subjects own words to show their agency working against the clichés that often underlie public views of the niqab that it is purely the result of masculine pressure for example or extreme religiosity or nationalism or the submissive desire to disappear Instead she shows the niqab is multivalent women wear it for reasons that range from religious piety to the desire to rebel against mainstream society family or the rule of law The reasons are complex overdetermined contradictory or even inconsistent but they are the women's own Despite being worn only by a small minority of Muslim women the Islamic garment has nonetheless been a major source of intense political religious and cultural debate in France Searching to understand rather than speculate De Féo chose to approach the people who wear the niqab and to make them rather the veil itself the subject of her research Her unprecedented study based on more than 200 interviews reveals the many factors social political geopolitical and psychological underpinning a personal choice that is not always as religious as it seems The book ends with sixteen captivating interviews giving voice to stories rarely heard With finesse and discernment the author debunks the myths surrounding the wearing of the niqab and sheds light on a practice subject to misunderstanding and prejudice offering the reader unique insight Challenging our preconceived notions and stereotypes about women who wear any form of Islamic apparel but particularly the niqab The Niqab in France introduces a group of women each with her own life story her own share of personal struggles aspirations and desires and her own claim to a certain place in society This work received support for excellence in publication and translation from Albertine
