Popular Series Fiction for Middle School and Teen Readers Rebecca L. Thomas, Catherine Barr, 2005 A guide to more than eight hundred fiction series including graphic novels and manga Prison of Thoughts Cherie-Anne Wilson, 2015-04-24 This is the first book in a series which is based on a girl who was raised with a form of domestic violence As a result of that upbringing she had very low self esteem and little to no confidence to speak up for herself She believed she was a public joke because she didn't think she deserved anything better who knows if she actually was Holding it all in out of fear of rejection and humiliation she found herself with a range of problems and had resigned to the fact that she would never become anything of value It took one person to come into her life and change everything maybe she was worth more after all This is a series which aims to show people how easy it is to fall into a depression over nothing more than perception and how very possible it is to overcome it with the right attitude Children's Books in Print, 1993 Can't Stay Away Francine Pascal, 1999 The twins are seniors New faces old friends and Jessica and Elizabeth Wakefield right in the middle of things Elizabeth Wakefield jumps into senior year ready to devote herself to the newspaper homework and her writing Trouble is she can't stop thinking about Conner McDermott a guy from El Carro high who is total bad news and who hardly even notices her She misses study dates can't speak in class and takes hours to get ready for school completely unlike herself Could any guy change her so much Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature Christine A.
