So Long Until Tomorrow From Quaker Hill To Kathmandu:

So Long Until Tomorrow Lowell Thomas, 1977 Lowell Thomas takes the reader to many remote places in the world including central Siberia New Guinea the South Pole an ice island three hundred miles from the North Pole Megyn Kelly Phoebe Collins, 2017-12-15 Megyn Kelly possesses both courage and knowledge when it comes to uncovering the truth at the heart of today's issues Leaving a successful legal career to pursue journalism Kelly went on to host her own television programs and conduct interviews with celebrities and presidents alike Despite challenging moments in her personal and professional life she continues to demonstrate fortitude and a sense of humor This book focuses on the experiences that shaped her personal life and career and made her an inspiration for fans on both sides of the political aisle Lowell

Thomas Jr. Lowell Thomas Jr., Lew Freedman, 2013-10-01 Lowell Thomas Jr is a famed Alaskan who made his mark as a Bush pilot and by serving in state government but who also has had a lifetime's worth of adventures that have taken him around the world Thomas now eighty nine and living in Anchorage is the son of one of the most widely known Americans of the twentieth century and his connection to Lowell Thomas Sr 1892 1981 enabled him to jump start his life of adventure at a very early age From the time he was fifteen Lowell Thomas Jr has been involved in a series of journeys that have seen him cross paths with many famous lives and take part in many historic events The Voice of America Mitchell

Stephens, 2024-06-04 WINNER Sperber Prize 2018 for the best biography of a journalist The first and definitive biography of an audacious adventurer the most famous journalist of his time who more than anyone invented contemporary journalism Tom Brokaw says Lowell Thomas so deserves this lively account of his legendary life He was a man for all seasons Mitchell Stephens's The Voice of America is a first rate and much needed biography of the great Lowell Thomas Nobody can properly understand broadcast journalism without reading Stephens's riveting account of this larger than life globetrotting radio legend Douglas Brinkley Professor of History at Rice University and author of Cronkite Few Americans today recognize his name but Lowell Thomas was as well known in his time as any American journalist ever has been Raised in a Colorado gold rush town Thomas covered crimes and scandals for local then Chicago newspapers He began lecturing on Alaska after spending eight days in Alaska Then he assigned himself to report on World War I and returned with an exclusive the story of Lawrence of Arabia In 1930 Lowell Thomas began delivering America's initial radio newscast His was the trusted voice that kept Americans abreast of world events in turbulent decades his face familiar too as the narrator of the most popular newsreels His contemporaries were also dazzled by his life In a prime time special after Thomas died in 1981 Walter Cronkite said that Thomas had crammed a couple of centuries worth of living into his eighty nine years Thomas delighted in entering forbidden countries Tibet for example where he met the teenaged Dalai Lama The Explorers Club has named its building its awards and its annual dinner after him Journalists in the last decades of the twentieth century including Cronkite and Tom Brokaw acknowledged a profound debt to Thomas Though they may not know it journalists today too are following a path he blazed In The Voice of America Mitchell Stephens offers a hugely entertaining sometimes critical portrait of this larger than life figure Richard Aldington and Lawrence of Arabia Fred D. Crawford, 1998 If you plan to portray a national icon in less than heroic terms you had better be prepared for a fight as Richard Aldington learned even before the publication of his 1955 biography Lawrence of Arabia A Biographical Enquiry Fred D Crawford provides the first examination of all major parties and points of view embroiled in the controversy generated by Aldington's biography of T E Lawrence In two years of research Aldington made major discoveries including the extent to which Lawrence had cooperated with Lowell Thomas Robert Graves and B H Liddell Hart in the creation of the Lawrence legend For this and other reasons Aldington concluded that Lawrence was a charlatan a poseur and a fraud Upon learning of Aldington's antagonism to Lawrence a year before Aldington's book appeared a powerful group including B H Liddell Hart Robert Graves A W Lawrence and other Lawrence partisans worked behind the scenes to suppress and denigrate Aldington's biography These attempts Crawford notes reveal a great deal about how private interests can determine what the public is allowed to read Fallen Giants Maurice Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions Routledge Revivals: Radio Broadcasting from 1920 to 1990 \(1991\) Diane Foxhill Carothers, 2016-11-10 First published in 1991 this book presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of radio broadcasting Its eleven chapter categories cover almost the entire range of radio broadcasting with the exception of radio engineering due to its technical complexity although some of the historical volumes do encompass aspects thus providing background material Entries are primarily restricted to published books although a number of trade journals and periodicals are also included Each entry includes full bibliographic information including the ISBN or ISSN where available and an annotation written by the author with the original text in hand Austria Made in Hollywood Jacqueline Vansant, 2019 Considers over sixty Hollywood films set in Austria examining the film industry the influence of domestic factors on images of a foreign country and the persistence of clichés Maria von Trapp watching the final scene of The Sound of Music for the first time as her family escaped into Switzerland exclaimed Don't they know geography in Hollywood Salzburg does not border on Switzerland Hadshe thought about the beginning of the film which transports viewers to Salzburg Austria in the last Golden Days of the Thirties when the country was in fact suffering from extreme political and social unrest she might have asked Don't they know history either In The Sound of Music as well as in Hollywood's many other Austria films the projections on the screen resemble reflections in a funhouse mirror Elements of a real place with areal history inhabited by real people can be found in the fractured distortions which have both drawn from and contributed to the general public's perceptions of the country and its citizens Austria Made in Hollywood focuses on films set in an identifiable Austria examining them through the lenses of the historical contexts on both sides of the Atlantic and the prism of the ever changing domestic film industry The study chronicles the protean screen images of Austria and Austrians that set them apart both from European projections of Austria and from Hollywood incarnations of other European nations and nationals It explores explicit and implicit cultural commentaries on domestic and foreign issues inserted in the Austrian stories while considering the many sometimes conflicting forces that shaped the films

The Letters and Diaries of Colonel John Hart Caughey, 1944-1945 Roger B. Jeans, 2018-06-18 Colonel John Hart Caughey a US Army war plans officer stationed in the Chinese Nationalist capital of Chungking was an eyewitness to the battle for China in the final months of the war 1944 45 and beyond when he rose to become head of the Theater Planning Section In frequent letters to his wife as well as in several diaries he chronicled the US military's role in wartime China especially his life as an American planner when he was subject to military censorship Previous accounts of the China Theater have largely neglected the role of the War Department planners stationed in Chungking many of whom were Caughey's colleagues and friends He also penned colorful descriptions of life in wartime China which vividly remind the reader how far China has come in a mere seventy odd years In addition his letters and diaries deepen our understanding of several of the American leaders in this Asian war including China Theater commander Albert C Wedemeyer Fourteenth Air Force chief Claire L Chennault former commander of the Flying Tigers US ambassador to wartime China Patrick J Hurley famed Time Life reporter Theodore White OSS director William Wild Bill Donovan Louis Mountbatten Supreme Commander of the Southeast Asia Command and Jonathan Wainwright who was in command when the American forces in the Philippines surrendered in 1942 and who stayed for a few days at Caughey's Chungking residence on his way home after several years as a Japanese POW in Manchuria In his writings Caughey also revealed a more appealing side of Wedemeyer whose extreme political opinions in the postwar era probably cost him the post of US Army chief of staff By making Caughey a member of his planning staff Wedemeyer made possible an extraordinary experience for the young colonel during the war Caughey also rubbed shoulders with Nationalist leader Chiang Kai shek and traveled to the battlefields in Southeast China with the commander in chief of the Nationalist Army He Yingqin along with a number of other Chinese and American soldiers Following the Japanese surrender Caughey chronicled the resumption of the power struggle between the Chinese Nationalists and the Chinese Communists largely postponed during the conflict Shortly after the war he had a brief encounter with the number two Communist leader Zhou Enlai whom he was to get to know much better during the Marshall Mission to China

The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence George W. Wolfe, 2010-09-29 Religion and violence the two concepts seem incompatible given the emphasis in religion on virtue love forgiveness and compassion Yet many scriptures contain martial images and stories of god inspired military conquest The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence confronts this theological contradiction arguing that martial images and symbols found in religious texts are often meant to be interpreted as metaphors for an inner spiritual struggle and should never be used as a justification for war The analysis is undertaken from an interfaith perspective that explains many of the paradoxical concepts found in theories of nonviolence

Professor Wolfe also presents a compelling case for the sustainability paradigm and for offering peace education and interreligious dialogue on a global scale He probes the scriptures of the world proving that nonviolence is a shared virtue and that the real enemy we must battle against and ultimately defeat is actually within us An excellent introduction to spiritually based principled nonviolence Professor Wolfes blend of different wisdom traditions is especially useful Dr Michael Nagler Professor Emeritus University of California at Berkeley George Wolfe has put the blame for proliferating violence in the world where it belongs on the crass interpretation of religion A thought provoking book Arun Gandhi President Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence Truly an enlightening book Judy O'Bannon Former First Lady of Indiana

Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton, 2011-08-15 In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security In Journalism's Roving Eye

John Maxwell Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism s constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism s Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead
