Social Change In The Capitalist World Economy No Series Description Provided:

The Social Origins of Democratic Collapse Kathleen Crowley Schwartzman, 1989 Schwartzman's study of the first Portuguese republic demonstrates the significant ways in which a nation's social and political structures are shaped by its position in the global economy

Capitalism in the Ottoman Balkans Costas Lapavistas, Pinar Cakiroglu, 2019-08-08 The Ottoman Empire went through rapid economic and social development in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries as it approached its end. Profound changes took place in its European territories particularly and prominently in Macedonia. In the decades before the First World War industrial capitalism began to emerge in Ottoman Macedonia and its impact was felt across society. The port city of Salonica was at the epicentre of this transformation led by its Jewish community. But the most remarkable site of development was found deep in provincial Macedonia where industrial capitalism sprang from domestic sources in spite of unfavourable conditions. Ottoman Greek traders and industrialists from the region of Mount Vermion helped shape the economic trajectory of Turkey in Europe and competed successfully against Jewish capitalists from Salonica. The story of Ottoman Macedonian capitalism was nearly forgotten in the century that followed the demise of the Empire. This book pieces it together by unearthing Ottoman archival materials combined with Greek sources and field research. It offers a fresh perspective on late Ottoman economic history and will be an invaluable resource for scholars of Ottoman Greek and Turkish history. Published in Association with the British Institute at Ankara

The Struggle for Workers' Health Ray H. Elling, 2020-10-07 To better understand how strong worker protection systems differ from weak ones this volume reports and interprets a study carried out in six nations: Sweden, Finland, The German Democratic Republic, The Federal Republic of Germany, The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America. The work involved interviews with reputational leaders of different interest groups as well as observations, extensive document study and correspondence with key informants

Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism Manuela Boatcă, 2016-04-22 Based on theoretical developments in research on world systems analysis, transnational migration, postcolonial and decolonial perspectives whilst considering continuities of inequality patterns in the context of colonial and postcolonial realities, Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism proposes an original framework for the study of the long term reproduction of inequalities under global capitalism. With attention to the critical assessment of both Marxist and Weberian perspectives, this book examines the wider implications of transferring classical approaches to inequality to a twenty first century context, calling for a reconceptualisation of inequality that is both theoretically informed and methodologically consistent and able to cater for the implications of shifts from national and Western structures to global structures. Engaging with approaches to the study of class, gender, racial and ethnic inequalities at the global level, this innovative work adopts a relational perspective in the study of social inequalities that is able to reveal how historical interdependencies between world regions have translated as processes of inequality production and reproduction. As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology, political and social theory and anthropology concerned with questions of globalisation and inequality      Approaches to Human Geography Stuart Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2006-01-27 Approaches to Human Geography is the essential student primer on theory and practice in Human Geography It is a systematic review of the key ideas and debates informing post war geography explaining how those ideas work in practice Avoiding jargon while attentive to the rigor and complexity of the ideas that underlie geographic knowledge the text is written for students who have not met philosophical or theoretical approaches before This is a beginning guide to geographic research and practice      We Are Not What We Seem Roderick D. Bush, 2000-03 An Indispensable Book of The Black World Today website A fresh new look at the Black Power movement and its leaders Much has been written about the Black Power movement in the United States Most of this work however tends to focus on the personalities of the movement In We Are Not What We Seem Roderick D Bush takes a fresh look at Black Power and other African American social movements with a specific emphasis on the role of the urban poor in the struggle for Black rights Bush traces the trajectory of African American social movements from the time Booker T Washington to the present providing an integrated discussion of class He addresses questions crucial to any understanding of Black politics Is the Black Power movement simply another version of the traditional American ethnic politics or does it have wider social import What role has the federal government played in implicitly grooming social conservatives like Louis Farrakhan to assume leadership positions as opposed to leftist grassroots class oriented leaders Bush avoids the traditional liberal and social democratic approaches in favor of a more universalistic perspective that offers new insights into the history of Black movements in the U S      Civilization and the Human Subject John Mandalios, 1999-09-08 Recent debates have highlighted the importance of the self to a better understanding of the nature of culture and its relation to power In his new book John Mandalios incorporates the current postmodern debate on these issues with a deeper philosophical exploration of identity and cultural formation and the dynamics of social power underlying them He takes up identity formation within an analysis of the historical social political religious and psychoanalytical dimensions of civilized life that can be traced back to the classical world Questions ordinarily associated with the postmodern condition _otherness fragmentation power the situated self disciplinary practices and multiplicity_ are related to the problematic of human subjectivity and how civilized modes of conduct of the self cannot simply be explained by national cultural traditions Mandalios argues that self identity is not reducible to the effects of globalization or power or any one single collective identity representation The self is enveloped within a complex which requires a civilization analytic perspective into the world and the inner life      21st Century Anthropology: A Reference Handbook H. James Birx, 2010-06-10 Highlighting the most important topics issues questions and debates these two volumes offer full coverage of major subthemes and subfields within the discipline of anthropology      The Law and Society Reader Richard L. Abel, 1995-05 A collection of 19 articles drawn from the Law and Society Review Written by sociologists legal scholars and political scientists the chapters are divided into sections on disputing social control norm creation regulation equality ideology and consciousness and the legal profession Each chapter is followed by discussion questions while methodological discussion and references have been pruned from the original articles for the purpose of this reader Lacks an index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Urban Geography Michael Pacione,2001 This text is an introduction to the study of towns and cities The book synthesizes a wealth of material to provide a comprehensive introduction for students of urban geography drawing on a rich blend of theoretical and empirical information to advance their knowledge of the city For the first time in the history of humankind urban dwellers outnumber rural residents and this trend is destined to continue Urban places towns and cities are of fundamental importance for the distribution of population within countries in the organization of economic production distribution and exchange in the structuring of social reproduction and cultural life and in the allocation and exercise of power Even those living beyond the administrative or functional boundaries of a town or city will have their lifestyle influenced to some degree by a nearby or distant city

The Constitution of Society Anthony Giddens,1986-03-25 It is likely that this book will be regarded as the most important piece of grand sociological theory in English of the past decade Mark Poster University of California This book will take its place alongside such major statements of sociological theory as those of Parsons and Habermas Anyone interested in the state of the social sciences today the character of social theory or the relevance of philosophy to social theory will now find it essential to grapple with Giddens's bold and incisive book Richard Bernstein Haverford College USA Anthony Giddens's new book is the fullest presentation yet of his theoretical views it has the lean sparse utterly serious craftsmanlike qualities we have learned to expect from its author and which make it a real pleasure to read Dennis Wrong Times Higher Education Supplement

Housing and Social Change in Europe and the USA Ball Michael,Michael Harloe,Maartje Martens,2013-10-28 First published in 1988 This book argues that there is a growing structural crisis in the provision of housing in advanced capitalist countries and that the steady improvement in housing conditions since 1945 is unlikely to continue The dilemmas facing housing policy makers can no longer be seen as concerned just with distributional questions but with problems generated by the restructuring of key elements of housing provision including private housing finance and the housebuilding industry It looks at housing markets housing policies and specific institutions connected with housing provision in many advanced capitalist countries including Britain the USA France West Germany the Netherlands and Denmark It considers the different sectors and the changes taking place there using case study material where appropriate to support its varied and convincing arguments

Mega-events and social change Maurice Roche,2017-06-05 The spectacle of major cultural and sporting events can preoccupy modern societies This book is concerned with contemporary mega events like the Olympics and Expos Using a sociological perspective Roche argues that mega events reflect the major social changes which now influence our societies particularly in the West and that these amount to a new second phase of the modernization process Changes are particularly visible in the media urban and global locational aspects of mega events Thus he suggests that contemporary mega events both in their achievements and their vulnerabilities reflect in the media sphere the rise of the internet in the urban sphere de industrialisation and the growing ecological crisis and in the global sphere the relative decline of the West and the rise of China and other emerging countries

Alternative Capitalisms: Geographies of Emerging Regions Robert Gwynne, Denis Shaw, Thomas Klak, 2014-05-12 This book aims to examine the effects of globalization and economic and political transformations in those parts of the world which are now regularly referred to as emerging regions These are Latin America and the Caribbean East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union and East Asia This book breaks new ground in three areas First of all it develops a critique of the use of the term emerging regions for geographers and social scientists and relates this to world systems theory Secondly it explores the development trajectories and challenges of countries in this so called emerging world countries that will be crucial to the evolution of the world economy in the twenty first century Thirdly it compares and contrasts the pathways of both economic and political change in the three world regions under focus This is a unique approach in terms of books published in both geography and the social sciences Within the context of the three world regions the book combines historical and contemporary analysis of the evolving world system In these regions we are concerned to understand the historical expansion and extension of capitalism and how its contemporary forms of production exchange and regulation are evolving The authors believe that at the present time these processes have produced alternative capitalisms economic and associated developments which while assuredly capitalist differ in various ways from those typical of the capitalist West or core economies of North America and Western Europe
