Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto,Rajinder Garcha,2012-11-21 All human beings encounter loss and death as well as the grief associated with these experiences It is therefore important for children and adolescents to understand that such events are inevitable and to learn how to accept loss and cope with their emotions In order to help children through their pain parents and caregivers need access to the proper resources that will help them discuss these topics and educational professionals need reliable resources for creating courses of study on these subjects In Death Loss and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto and Rajinder Garcha identify hundreds of resources that will help educators professionals parents siblings guardians and students learn about coping with the loss of a loved one and the grief process These resources include books Internet sites and media titles aimed at students and those helping them through the grieving process Chapters in this volume include fiction and non fiction titles about the loss of a family member a friend and a pet as well as general reference resources curricular resources and websites Annotations provide complete bibliographical descriptions of the entries and each entry is identified with the grade levels for which it is best suited Reviews from recognized publications are also included wherever possible Anyone interested in locating helpful resources regarding death and grieving will find much of value in this essential tool

Losing a Parent to Suicide Marty Loy, Amy Boelk, 2013-09-05 The suicide of a parent has life long consequences few more traumatic scenarios exist and counselors often struggle for ways to help clients deal with its effects Few understand the pain and life altering effects of these tragedies better than children who have experienced the suicide of a parent Despite this there are few texts that incorporate and evaluate the first person accounts of grief following a suicide while advancing a method for helping Losing a Parent to Suicide analyzes stories of parent suicides and explores the grief and coping processes that follow discovering the strategies methods and modes of therapy that have empowered grieving individuals and helped them rebuild their lives Clinical and Forensic Interviewing of Children and Families Jerome M.
