Teenagers at War John J. Somers, 2001 I went back to Normandy in 1994 for the 50th Anniversary of D Day Meeting many vets and seeing the Norman towns brought back a flood of memories When Les Ploettner and I joined the others in telling war stories they liked our tales of derring do by the infamous pair sometimes known as the Dauntless Duo Some of the wives said that everyone should write their stories for posterity Upon returning home I began with Les filling in when my memory failed to put to paper the stories contained in this book We both came to the conclusion that teen agers made up the majority of soldiers in our battery In this book I try to describe their feelings and how they faced combat and many wacky adventures during World War Two
