Television Under The Tories Broadcasting Policy 1979 1997:

British Television Policy Bob Franklin, 2001 British Television Policy A Reader provides a forum for the significant policy debates which have informed and shaped television broadcasting since the publication in 1986 of the Peacock Committee Report on the financing of the BBC The Reader presents key documents and critically analyses their impact on the organisation financial resources programme content editorial philosophy and the regulatory environment of television broadcasting Recognising that policy making is not wholly a prerogative of government British Television Policy provides readers with access to a wide range of statutory and non governmental documents which have affected British broadcasting legislation Acts of Parliament Private Members Bills Select Committee Reports Official statements by Ministers Parliamentary inquiries such as the Davies Report Policy documents prepared by interest groups such as the Campaign for Quality Television and the Voice of the Listener and Viewer Strategic announcements from the ITC Statements from the BBC and ITV Public lectures by media owners and executives such as Rupert Murdoch and Richard Eyre Commentaries from media academics and media analysts Beginning with a comprehensive editorial introduction which details television policy since 1945 the Reader is arranged in thematic sections which explore the purpose of television broadcasting the financing of television broadcasting policy and quality regulation and the relationship of broadcasting and politics Each section is accompanied by an editor's introduction and commentary and the Reader is supported by a glossary and a guide to further reading

Television Policies of the Labour Party 1951-2001 Des Freedman, 2004-08-02 Des Freedman explores Labour's divided response to the development of commercial television in the 1950s and assesses the impact of Wilson's governments on television in the 1960s His key argument is that Labour has always been a vigorous but ultimately unreliable advocate of television

The British Media Industries Vincent Campbell, Paul Smith, 2023-06-29 The British Media Industries offers an accessible introduction to how the media in Britain operates and the impact that recent political economic and technological developments have had on the nature of media industries today Split into two parts this book starts by exploring approaches to understanding contemporary media industries through political economic and technological terms The second part delves further into issues and practices relating to individual media industries including newspapers magazines film television music video games and social media The book adopts a political economy approach and is designed to engage students in an accessible way with key issues around the ownership and control of different sectors of the British media UK and EU government regulation of the media including content regulation and market economic regulation and the corporate strategies employed by leading media players such as the BBC Netflix Google and Apple This is an essential textbook for undergraduate students approaching British media industries for the first time and will also be relevant to students undertaking introductory courses in Media Management and Media Economics

Toward a Political Economy of Culture Andrew Calabrese, Colin Sparks, 2003-11-22 Several of the most important and influential political economists of communication working today explore a rich mix of topics and issues that link work policy studies and research and theory about the public sphere to the heritage of political economy Familiar but still exceedingly important topics in critical political economy studies are well represented here market structures and media concentration regulation and policy technological impacts on particular media sectors information poverty and media access The book also features new topics for political economy study including racism in audience research the value and need for feminist approaches to political economy studies and the relationship between the discourse of media finance and the behavior of markets

Documentary Screens

Keith Beattie, 2017-04-29 Documentary productions encompass remarkable representations of surprising realities How do documentaries achieve their ends What types of documentaries are there What factors are implicated in their production Such questions animate this engaging study Documentary Screens is a comprehensive and critical study of the formal features and histories of central categories of documentary film and television Among the categories examined are autobiographical indigenous and ethnographic documentary compilation films direct cinema and cinema verite and television documentary journalism The book also considers recent so called popular factual entertainment and the future of documentary film television and new media This provocative and accessible analysis situates wide ranging examples from each category within the larger material forces which impact on documentary form and content The important connection between form content and context explored in the book constitutes a new and lively documentary studies approach to documentary representation

A History of Independent Television in Wales

Jamie Medhurst, 2015-02-20 Despite the growing body of work on the media in Wales very little exists on the history of commercial television in Wales This book seeks to address this imbalance by tracing the growth and development of ITV in Wales and assessing its contribution to the life of the nation ITV has been a powerful force in British broadcasting since its inception in 1955 When commercial television came to Wales for the first time in 1958 it immediately got caught up in with matters of national identity language and geography Compared with the BBC it is a relative newcomer its growth was slower than that of the BBC and it took until 1962 to complete the network across the UK Once it had arrived however its impact was considerable The book will provide an historical narrative and critical analysis of independent television ITV in Wales from 1958 up until the present day

The Mediated City Stephen Coleman, Nancy Thumim, Chris Birchall, Julie Firmstone, Giles Moss, Katy Parry, Judith Stamper, Jay G. Blumler, 2016-08-15 How does news circulate in a major post industrial city And how in turn are identities and differences formed and mediated through this circulation This seminal work is the first to offer an empirical examination and trace a city's pattern of news circulation Encompassing a comprehensive range of practices involved in producing circulating and consuming news and recognizing the various ways in which individuals and groups may find out follow and discuss local issues and events The Mediated City critiques thinking that takes the centrality of certain news media as an unquestioned starting point By doing so it opens up a discussion do we know what news is What types of media constitute it And why does it matter Sport, Public Broadcasting, and Cultural Citizenship Jay Scherer, David Rowe, 2013-08-15 This book examines the political debates over the access to live telecasts of sport in the digital broadcasting era It outlines the broad theoretical debates political positions and policy calculations over the provision of live free to air telecasts of sport as a right of cultural citizenship In so doing the book provides a number of comparative case studies that explore these debates and issues in various global spaces Communication in the Age of Suspicion V. Bakir, D. Barlow, 2007-04-12 In this timely volume fourteen international contributors explore the relationship between media and trust beginning with an examination of the decline of trust in key institutions The book concludes by considering the future implications for media communication and exploring potential directions for further research in this Age of Suspicion Television Under the Tories Peter Goodwin, 1998-09 British television has always carried special international significance in its early years it was regarded as the model of public service broadcasting However with the advent of a Conservative government in 1979 and the rapid development of new technologies broadcasting policy was subjected to a wide range of fundamental changes Market liberalism with Margaret Thatcher as its most visible personification has since transformed the global landscape of broadcasting This text examines the particular impact made by the Thatcher and Major administrations on the British television industry one of only a handful that have had successful ambitions in challenging the dominance of US programming in the global marketplace This authoritative study should be of value to scholars and students of international communications TV and government policy It is an accessible and concise account of changes in one of the world's most distinctive and highly regarded television industries

Television Under The Tories Broadcasting Policy 1979 1997: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Television Under The Tories Broadcasting Policy 1979 1997 : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Television Under The Tories Broadcasting Policy 1979 1997 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Television Under The Tories Broadcasting Policy 1979 1997 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
