Television and the News Harry Jay Skornia,1968 Television and the news Harry J. Skornia,1968 The Entertainment Functions of Television P. H. Tannenbaum,2014-03-18 First published in 1980 This volume is an indirect product of the activities of the Committee on Television and Social Behavior of the Social Science Research Council SSRC This is a collection of essays looking at the entertainment function of television in the United States Estimating Equilibrium Exchange Rates John Williamson,1994 The problems of exchange rate misalignments and the resulting payments imbalances have plagued the world economy for decades At the Louvre Accord of 1987 the Group of Five industrial countries adopted a system of reference ranges for exchange rate management influenced by proposals of C Fred Bergstan and John Williamson for a target zone system The reference range approach has however been operated only intermittently and half heartedly and questions continue to be raised in policy and scholarly circles about the design and operation of a full fledged target zone regime This volume with chapters by leading international economists explores one crucial issue in the design of a target zone system the problem of calculating Williamson s concept of the fundamental equilibrium exchange rate FEER Williamson contributes an overview of the policy and analytic issues and a second chapter on his own calculations

When MBAs Rule the Newsroom Doug Underwood,1993 Underwood shows how the trend toward making newspapers more responsive to reader s desires has restricted journalism American Studies Jack Salzman,American Studies Association,1986-08-29 A major three volume bibliography including an additional supplement of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1900 and 1988 Why Busing Failed Matthew F. Delmont,2016-03-01 Busing in which students were transported by school buses to achieve court ordered or voluntary school desegregation became one of the nation s most controversial civil rights issues in the decades after Brown v Board of Education 1954 Examining battles over school desegregation in cities like Boston Chicago New York and Pontiac Why Busing Failed shows how school officials politicians courts and the news media valued the desires of white parents more than the rights of black students and how antibusing parents and politicians borrowed media strategies from the civil rights movement to thwart busing for school desegregation This national history of busing brings together well known political figures such as Richard Nixon and Chicago Mayor Richard J Daley with less well known figures like Boston civil rights activist Ruth Batson Florida Governor Claude Kirk Pontiac housewife and antibusing activist Irene McCabe and Clay Smothers the self proclaimed most conservative black man in America This book shows that shows that busing failed to more fully desegregate public schools because school officials politicians courts and the news media valued the desires of white parents more than the rights of black students Provided by publisher The Myth of Post-Racialism in Television News Libby Lewis,2015-08-27 This book explores the written and unwritten requirements Black journalists face in their efforts to get and keep jobs in television news Informed by interviews with journalists themselves Lewis examines how raced Black journalists and their journalism organizations process their circumstances and choose to respond to the corporate and institutional constraints they face She uncovers the social construction and attempted control of Blackness in news production and its subversion by Black journalists negotiating issues of objectivity authority voice and appearance along sites of multiple differences of race gender and sexuality Handbook of Innovations in Strategic Communication Shannon A. Bowen,Elina Erzikova,2025-10-07 This unique Handbook demonstrates how strategic communication is undergoing significant changes due to advances in AI It examines the consequences of innovation in society and communication considering the ethical implications of technological developments Shannon A Bowen and Elina Erzikova bring together the world s leading experts on strategic communication to extrapolate probe and push the boundaries of their research into the future TV News in Brief Peter R.
