Television Today And Tomorrow The Granada Guildhall Lectures:

Independent Television in Britain Jeremy Potter, 2016-07-27 The ITV network was designed as a federation of companies different in size and character jointly and severally constructing programme schedules in which strands of entertainment were interwoven with news bulletins drama with sport feature films with documentaries church services with broadcasting for schools The purpose of this volume is to convey some impression of diversity by illustrating and illuminating the rich assortment of companies and programmes making up ITV's overall service to the public in the operation of a plural system on a single television channel during a peak period in British broadcasting

The Media and Political Violence Richard Clutterbuck, 1983-02-17

The History of Broadcasting in the United Kingdom: Volume V: Competition Asa Briggs, 1995-03-23 Part of a five volume history of the rise and development of broadcasting in the United Kingdom

Independent Television in Britain Bernard Sendall, Jeremy Potter, 1990-07-08 A companion to volume 3 Politics and Control 1968-80 this book covers aspects of the same period and completes the history of Independent Television from its origin and foundation to the end of 1980

Power Without Responsibility James Curran, Jean Seaton, 2024-09-06 This book attacks the conventional history of the press as a story of progress offers a critical defence and history of public service broadcasting provides a myth busting account of the internet gives a subtle account of the impact of social media and explores key debates about the role and politics of the media Power Without Responsibility has become a standard textbook on media and other courses but it has also gone beyond an academic audience to reach a wider public Hailed as a book that has cracked the canon by the Times Higher Educational Supplement it has been translated into five languages In 2019 it was awarded the International Communication Association's Fellows Book Award This ninth edition is based on a major overhaul of its content to take account of new developments such as generative AI and new scholarship in the field It also contains a new chapter on the transformed opportunity for a reformed and buccaneering public service broadcasting in the face of automated misinformation and social division locally nationally and internationally This trailblazing text is essential reading for all students and scholars interested in British media and contemporary media and society

Kenneth Clark James Stourton, 2016-11-01 The definitive biography of this brilliant polymath director of the National Gallery author patron of the arts social lion and singular pioneer of television that also tells the story of the arts in the twentieth century through his astonishing life Kenneth Clark's thirteen part 1969 television series Civilisation established him as a globally admired figure Clark was prescient in making this series the upheavals of the century the Cold War among others convinced him of the power of barbarism and the fragility of culture He would burnish his image with two memoirs that artfully omitted the more complicated details of his life Now drawing on a vast previously unseen archive James Stourton reveals the formidable intellect and the private man behind the figure who effortlessly dominated the art world for more than half a century his privileged upbringing his interest in art history beginning at Oxford his remarkable early successes At 27 he was keeper of Western Art at the Ashmolean in Oxford and at 29 the youngest director of The National Gallery During the war he arranged for its entire collection to be hidden in slate mines in Wales and organized packed concerts of classical music at the Gallery to keep up the spirits of Londoners during the bombing WWII helped shape his belief that art should be brought to the widest audience a social and moral position that would inform the rest of his career Television became a means for this message when he was appointed the first chairman of the Independent Television Authority Stourton reveals the tortuous state of his marriage during and after the war his wife s alcoholism and the aspects of his own nature that he worked to keep hidden A superb work of biography Kenneth Clark is a revelation of its remarkable subject The Economist ,1963-03 A Licence to be Different Maggie Brown,2020-12-10 Traces the history and development of Channel 4 one of the UK s best loved and most controversial TV channels Identifies key figures and signature programmes such as Brookside The Big Breakfast and Wife Swap as well as successful American imports including Friends and Sex and the City The Future of Broadcasting Social Morality Council,2013-06-19 At the time when this book was originally published broadcasting in Britain had become a huge industry undergoing major changes There were questions over the release of a new television channel and commercial radio This Report was commissioned to aid the citizen at the receiving end of the new technologies who could feel very remote from the plans and decisions It represents a wide range of views and interests to examine the important questions which were arising from broadcasting from the point of view of the public benefit It sets out clearly and fully the background and the arguments in broadcasting debate The report made many interesting and far reaching recommendations and looking back this reveals a lot about the inner processes of the broadcasting organisations of the time This is a fascinating glimpse of past questions and solutions in which parallels can be drawn with the present time BBC Handbook British Broadcasting Corporation,1978
