Tell Me Why A Father Answers His Daughters Questions About God:

Catholic Discordance Massimo Borghesi, 2021-11-15 One element of the church that Pope Francis was elected to lead in 2013 was an ideology that might be called the American model of Catholicism the troubling result of efforts by intellectuals like Michael Novak George Weigel and Richard John Neuhaus to remake Catholicism into both a culture war colossus and a prop for ascendant capitalism After laying the groundwork during the 1980s and armed with a selective and manipulative reading of Pope John Paul II's 1991 encyclical Centesimus Annus these neoconservative commentators established themselves as authoritative Catholic voices throughout the 1990s viewing every question through a liberal conservative ecclesial political lens The movement morphed further after the 9/11 terror attacks into a startling amalgamation of theocratic convictions which led to the troubling theopoliticism we see today The election of the Latin American pope represented a mortal threat to all of this and a poisonous backlash was inevitable bringing us to the brink of a true American schism This is the drama of today's Catholic Church In Catholic Discordance: Neoconservatism vs the Field Hospital Church of Pope Francis Massimo Borghesi who masterfully unveiled the pope's own intellectual development in his The Mind of Pope Francis analyzes the origins of today's Catholic neoconservative movement and its clash with the church that Francis understands as a field hospital for a fragmented world

A History of Apologetics Avery Dulles, 2018-08-22 Making the case for the Christian faith apologetics has always been part of the Church's mission Yet Christians sometimes have had different approaches to defending the faith responding to the needs of their respective times and framing their arguments to address the particular issues of their day Cardinal Avery Dulles's A History of Apologetics provides a masterful overview of Christian apologetics from its beginning in the New Testament through the Middle Ages and on to the present resurgence of apologetics among Catholics and Protestants Dulles shows how Christian apologists have at times both criticized and drawn from their intellectual surroundings to present the reasonableness of Christian belief Written by one of Catholicism's leading American theologians A History of Apologetics also examines apologetics in the 20th and early 21st centuries including its decline among Catholics following Vatican II and its recent revival as well as the contributions of contemporary Evangelical Protestant apologists Dulles also considers the growing Catholic Protestant convergence in apologetics No student of apologetics and contemporary theology should be without this superb and masterful work

The Question and Answer Catholic Catechism John Hardon, 1981-11-01 The question and answer format is the most popular way of providing specific answers to specific questions about Catholicism Father John A. Hardon using the material from his best selling Catholic Catechism has put together a book of over 1,700 questions and answers to provide the modern Catholic with easy access to the issues of the Catholic faith The Question and Answer Catholic Catechism is divided into three parts 1 Christian Belief a study of the articles of faith as presented in the Apostles Creed 2 Living in the Christian Faith an examination of the Ten Commandments the Beatitudes and the Commandments of the Church 3 Sources of the Christian Life a consideration of grace the Sacraments prayer the liturgy Keeping in mind that a good catechism must speak to the hearts of the faithful and answer their questions in clear understandable language The Question and Answer Catholic Catechism presents the modern Catholic with the essentials of the Catholic faith in a manner that is easy to use and spiritually sound
