first hand accounts bringing home the realities of medical treatment in wartime Mediating Criticism Roger D. Sell,2001
In the twentieth century literature was under threat Not only was there the challenge of new forms of oral and visual culture Even literary education and literary criticism could sometimes actually distance novels poems and plays from their potential audience This is the trend which Roger D Sell now seeks to reverse Arguing that literature can still be a significant and democratic channel of human interactivity he sees the most helpful role of teachers and critics as one of mediation Through their own example they can encourage readers to empathize with otherness to recognize the historical achievement of significant acts of writing and to respond to literary authors own faith in communication itself By way of illustration he offers major re assessments of five canonical figures Vaughan Fielding Dickens T S Eliot and Frost and of two fascinating twentieth century writers who were somewhat misunderstood the novelist William Gerhardie and the poet Andrew Young Prostitution, Women and Misuse of the Law Helen J. Self,2004-08-02 This is an examination from a feminist historian s standpoint of the background to the present system of regulating prostitution in Britain which is generally admitted to be not only unjust and discriminatory but ineffective even in achieving its stated aims Concentrating on the 1950s and especially on the Wolfenden Report and the 1959 Street Offences Act it is a thorough exposure of the sexual double standard and general misogynist assumptions underlying legislation relating to prostitution In addition to the detailed analysis of the 1950s legislation and the background to it there is an exposition of the subsequent workings of the Act and of attempts to amend or repeal it Self Impression Max Saunders,2010-04-22 Ford Madox Ford A Dual Life Volume II The After War World Max

Lost Voices of Modernity Denise Gimpel,2001-08-31 Lost Voices of Modernity uncovers the story of the most popular and perhaps the most maligned modern Chinese literary journal Xiaoshuo yuebao The Short Story Magazine First published in Shanghai in 1910 Xiaoshuo yuebao boasted a circulation of ten thousand within its first three years of publication Scholars have long characterized the journal as little more than superficial popular entertainment primarily action adventure and love stories and attributed its early popularity to an urban audience s need for distraction and escape Now however Denise Gimpel s persuasive and effective study reveals a journal of serious appearance and intent By placing publication contributions and contributors within their specific cultural social and political contexts Gimpel provides an astonishingly cogent picture of a reform through fiction project created and managed by a dedicated body of writers attempting to address the concerns of the day Xiaoshuo yuebao informed the growing reading public of national and international issues science and foreign lands Read in context the stories essays plays and poems published in its pages largely in the form of the new fiction that had been hailed as the sociopolitical cure all of the early twentieth century

Handbook on International Drug Policy David R. Bewley-Taylor,Khalid Tinasti,2020-09-25 Analysing arguably one of the most controversial areas in public policy this pioneering Research Handbook brings together contributions from expert researchers to provide a global overview of the shifting dynamics of drug policy.
