The Fifties Decades:

The 50s: The Story of a Decade The New Yorker Magazine, 2016-07-05 This engrossing anthology assembles classic New Yorker pieces from a complex era enshrined in the popular imagination as the decade of poodle skirts and Cold War paranoia featuring contributions from Philip Roth John Updike Nadine Gordimer and Adrienne Rich along with fresh analysis of the 1950s by some of today's finest writers The New Yorker was there in real time chronicling the tensions and innovations that lay beneath the era's placid surface In this thrilling volume classic works of reportage criticism and fiction are complemented by new contributions from the magazine's present all star lineup of writers The magazine's commitment to overseas reporting flourished in the 1950s leading to important dispatches from East Berlin the Gaza Strip and Cuba during the rise of Castro Closer to home the fight to break barriers and establish a new American identity led to both illuminating coverage as in a portrait of Thurgood Marshall at an NAACP meeting in Atlanta and trenchant commentary as in E B White's blistering critique of Senator Joe McCarthy The arts scene is recalled in critical writing rarely reprinted including Wolcott Gibbs on My Fair Lady Anthony West on Invisible Man and Philip Hamburger on Candid Camera Also featured are great early works from Philip Roth and Nadine Gordimer as well as startling poems by Theodore Roethke and Anne Sexton among others Completing the panoply are insightful and entertaining new pieces by present day New Yorker contributors examining the 1950s through contemporary eyes The result is a vital portrait of American culture as only one magazine in the world could do it Including contributions by Elizabeth Bishop Truman Capote John Cheever Roald Dahl Janet Flanner Nadine Gordimer A J Liebling Dwight Macdonald Joseph Mitchell Marianne Moore Vladimir Nabokov Sylvia Plath V S Pritchett Adrienne Rich Lillian Ross Philip Roth Anne Sexton James Thurber John Updike Eudora Welty E B White Edmund Wilson And featuring new perspectives by Jonathan Franzen Malcolm Gladwell Adam Gopnik Elizabeth Kolbert Jill Lepore Rebecca Mead Paul Muldoon Evan Osnos David Remnick Praise for The 50s Superb a gift that keeps on giving Kirkus Reviews starred review A magnificent anthology Literary Review

The 1950s Decade in Photos Jim Corrigan, 2010-01-01 Describes the important world national and cultural developments of the decade 1950-1959

The Lost Decade? The 1950s in European History, Politics, Society and Culture Heiko Feldner, Claire Gorrara, Kevin Passmore, 2010-10-12 This volume of essays explores the social political and cultural legacies of a decade which has until relatively recently received scant scholarly attention Sandwiched uncomfortably between the traumatic events of the Second World War and the dramatic changes of the 1960s the 1950s appeared as seemingly transitional years while they were in fact an astonishingly fecund period of reassessment and experimentation when traditional models were re-evaluated and new models were road tested to be either developed or rejected An important intervention in the dynamic scholarly re-examination of the 1950s this volume analyzes these years in relation to three broadly defined areas historiography politics and society and culture What emerges from all three parts of the volume is a vision of the 1950s as a decade which was to have a profound impact on post war European identities in two key respects as a time of accelerated European intellectual exchange and as a time of fertile receptivity to the new variously formulated and contested across and within national borders Written by experts in the field the contributions to this volume represent some of the most exciting work on the 1950s currently being undertaken in Europe and the US They combine high intellectual standards with accessibility and will appeal to academics students and the general reader alike

Decades Cameron Silver, Rebecca DiLiberto, 2012-10-16 Presents a decade by decade guide to the most influential looks of the past century matching red carpet gowns to famous celebrities while providing original designer sketches photos of rare couture and interviews with a range of authorities

America in the Fifties Enzo George, 2015-07-15 Shortly after World War II America experienced an incredible economic and technological boom as soldiers returned home from abroad The middle class grew and technology such as the automobile and television found their way into more and more homes Explore the Fifties through the eyes of artists politicians and ordinary people

America in the Fifties Andrew J. Dunar, 2006-11-07 Blessed by a booming economy the United States experienced the benefits of technology in the 1950s with television and the automobile transforming the way people lived and the space race offering new challenges At the same time the nation faced domestic divisions and international crises that would have far reaching historical and political consequences The 1950s evoke images of prosperity suburbia a smiling President Eisenhower cars with elaborate tail fins Elvis Presley Marilyn Monroe and the golden age of television seemingly a simpler time in which the idealized family life of situation comedies had at least some basis in reality A closer examination however recalls more threatening images the hysteria of McCarthyism the shadow of the atomic bomb war in Korea the Soviet threat manifested in the launch of Sputnik and the bombast of Nikita Khrushchev and a clash over the integration of public buses in Montgomery Alabama and a high school in Little Rock Arkansas Andrew J Dunar successfully shows how the issues confronting America in the late twentieth century have roots in the fifties some apparent at the time others only in retrospect civil rights

environmentalism the counterculture and movements on behalf of women Latinos and Native Americans The rise of the beats the continuing development of jazz the emergence of rock n roll and the art of Jackson Pollock reveal the decade to be less conformist than commonly portrayed While the cold war rivalry with the Soviet Union generated the most concern Dunar skillfully illustrates how the rise of Nasser in Egypt Castro in Cuba and Communist regimes in North Korea Vietnam and China signaled new regional challenges to American power This book will be ideal for instructors of American history survey courses at the high school and undergraduate levels

Happy Days and Wonder Years Daniel Marcus, 2004 In the 21st century why do we keep talking about the fifties and sixties In Happy Days and Wonder Years Daniel Marcus reveals how interpretations of these decades have figured in the cultural politics of the United States since 1970

What America Lost: Decades That Made a Difference Sallie Ferrell Bolich, 2009-08-04 As the fifties ended we were about to embark on a journey that would take our American society in a completely new direction By reviewing history we can identify how the tumultuous sixties chose our path while each decade beginning in 1950 and continuing through 2000 determined our course at that time. On this journey many values and lifestyles experienced by the Baby Boomers were left behind not passed on to their children Gen X and Gen Y. The resulting new outlook profoundly influenced attitudes held by these emerging generations. The fascinating field of handwriting analysis serves as our GPS which enables us to identify these attitudes trace where we've been and understand where society is today. Handwriting is an expression of self and attitudes resulting from personal experiences, social interactions and events that made a significant impact. Reliving the journey with insight is made possible by studying handwriting samples obtained from high school yearbooks covering those five decades. Numerous historical and societal changes profoundly influenced attitudes of today. These attitudes mirror our culture. Handwriting analysis will not reveal precise societal changes however it will reveal how these changes impact attitudes.

The Proud Decades John P. Diggins, 1988. What happens when public figures' private selves are put forth for examination by public audiences? How do the personal struggles of music artists, specifically those with immigrant backgrounds, compare to the private struggles of other individuals? At a time when many countries in the European Union experience an increase in far right political party activities, how do individuals from the margins negotiate new ways of thinking about identity, offering hope for greater understanding of shared struggles across societies? This book offers interpretations of identity and belonging by examining the work of two music artists: Faudel Belloua from France and Adam Tensta from Sweden. By analyzing texts produced by these individuals, I argue that ongoing engagement with the materials produced by Belloua and Tensta, a process which I refer to as living biography, presents a unique window into the process of how Belloua and Tensta connect personal struggles to public issues, providing a compelling departure point for further discussions on how interpretations of national identity are changing in France and Sweden and beyond.

Revisiting and Revising the Fifties in Contemporary US Popular Culture Eleonora Ravizza, 2020-05-25. In this book, Eleonora Ravizza analyzes how contemporary American popular culture has represented and reproduced the fifties. By investigating the cultural work of films and TV series from the last two decades, the book uncovers the inherent limitations of a revisionist take on the fifties. Ravizza argues that due to the visual nature of the fifties, crystallized in American consciousness through the widespread influence of television, most contemporary attempts to rework and rewrite the regressive gender, queer, and racial politics fall short of such a revisionist reevaluation.
