The Final Fire:

The Final Fire Dennis Smith, 1976 The Final Journey: Larry D. Horton PhD, 2017-03-30 It is the summer of 2016 and the possibility that a dark world exists in the future is a theory no one wants to become a reality As signs of impending turmoil increase and a presidential election looms in the near future two married Christian survivalists begin preparations for a fifteen hundred mile journey to what they hope is a safe place Along the way they log their experiences in a diary while strictly adhering to the mantra to always be prepared for the worst As the couple creates the four Es criteria evaluate escape evade and endure that will dictate their journey they pledge to stay true to them hinged on a strong faith that they will be led by an eternal plan After evaluating their priorities and finalizing the details the couple finally sets out in January on their quest to survive within a different world As a new president is inaugurated and the country becomes more divided than ever the Christian survivalists rely on their faith scripture and inner strength as they transform into determiners of their own future But can they overcome their challenges and endure long enough to reach their destination In this fictionalized diary two Christian survivalists vividly describe their faith filled journey to begin a new chapter within a tumultuous post election world

The Last Fire Season Manjula Martin, 2025-05-13 H Is for Hawk meets Joan Didion in the Pyrocene in this arresting combination of memoir natural history and literary inquiry that chronicles one woman's experience of life in Northern California during the worst fire season on record FINALIST FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD NATIONAL BESTSELLER AN NPR BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR Told in luminous perceptive prose The Last Fire Season is a deeply incisive inquiry into what it really means now to live in relationship to the elements of the natural world When Manjula Martin moved from the city to the woods of Northern California she wanted to be closer to the wilderness that she had loved as a child She was also seeking refuge from a health crisis that left her with chronic pain and found a sense of healing through tending her garden beneath the redwoods of Sonoma County But the landscape that Martin treasured was an ecosystem already in crisis Wildfires fueled by climate change were growing bigger and more frequent each autumn her garden filled with smoke and ash and the local firehouse siren wailed deep into the night In 2020 when a dry lightning storm ignited hundreds of simultaneous wildfires across the West and kicked off the worst fire season on record Martin along with thousands of other Californians evacuated her home in the midst of a pandemic Both a love letter to the forests of the West and an interrogation of the colonialist practices that led to their current dilemma The Last Fire Season follows her from the oak hills of Sonoma County to the redwood forests of coastal Santa Cruz to the pines and peaks of the Sierra Nevada as she seeks shelter bears witness to the devastation and tries to better understand fire's role in the ecology of the West As Martin seeks a way to navigate the daily experience of living in a damaged body on a damaged planet she comes to question her own assumptions about nature and the complicated connections between people and the land on which we live
