The First And The Last The German Fighter In World War II:

Operation Chowhound Stephen Dando-Collins, 2015-02-24 The true story of a little known yet remarkable World War II operation which had all the hallmarks of a suicide mission Beginning with a crazy plan hatched by a suspect prince and an even crazier reliance on the word of the Nazis Operation Chowhound was devised Between May 1 and May 8 1945 2 268 military units flown by the USAAF dropped food to 3 5 million starving Dutch civilians in German occupied Holland It took raw courage to fly on Operation Chowhound as American aircrews never knew when the German AAA might open fire on them or if Luftwaffe fighters might jump them Flying at 400 feet barely above the tree tops with guns pointed directly at them they would have no chance to bail out if their B 17s were hit and yet over eight days 120 000 German troops kept their word and never fired on the American bombers As they flew grateful Dutch civilians spelled out Thanks Boys in the tulip fields below Many Americans who flew in Operation Chowhound would claim it was the best thing they did in the war In this gripping narrative author Stephen Dando Collins takes the reader into the rooms where Operation Chowhound was born into the aircraft flying the mission and onto the ground in the Netherlands with the civilians who so desperately needed help James Bond creator Ian Fleming Hollywood actress Audrey Hepburn as well as Roosevelt Eisenhower and Churchill all play a part in this story creating a compelling narrative read

Strategic Bombing by the United States in World War II

Stewart Halsey Ross, 2015-10-03 The United States relied heavily on bombing to defeat the Germans and the Japanese in World War II and air raids were touted as precision bombing in American propaganda But was precision possible over cloud covered Europe or a darkened Japanese countryside Could the vaunted Norden optical bombsight in fact drop bombs into pickle barrels as advertised Were the American aircrews well trained and well protected How good were their airplanes What were the results of the costly raids This work sets suppositions against facts surrounding the United States use of strategic bombing in World War II Chapters cover the events leading up to World War II the start of the war the seers and the planners the airplanes bombs bombsights and aircrews the planes Germany used to defend itself against American planes the five cities Hamburg Dresden Tokyo Hiroshima and Nagasaki that experienced the most destruction and the U S Strategic Bombing Survey of the damage done by aerial bombing The book also probes the government's myth building statements that supported America's view of itself as a uniquely humanitarian nation and analyzes the role played by interservice rivalry battleship admirals against bomber generals

Fortune's Turn

David Pollard, 2024-07-04 The year 1942 began with disaster for the Allies but paved the way to victory World War II was a conflict over land and resources but also democracy and freedom The 1920s and 30s had seen liberal democracy losing the fight against challengers from the Left and Right By the end of the 1930s Hitler had destroyed the few functioning democracies in Europe and at the end of 1941 the future looked bleak even as the US entered the war after the attack on Pearl Harbour But the year that began in such fear ended with the Allies winning victories everywhere on land on the sea and in the air Discover
