The Flame of Freedom Robert Hamond, 1988 The Thailand-Burma Railway, 1942-1946: Voluntary accounts
Paul H. Kratoska, 2006 Forgotten Captives in Japanese-Occupied Asia Kevin Blackburn, Karl Hack, 2007-12-14 Using archival oral and literary sources Blackburn and Hack along with an impressive team of international contributors rectify the obscured picture of the Japanese captive by bringing together for the first time a collection of essays covering an extremely broad range of forgotten captives Never Surrender Mark Felton, 2013-06-30 While there have been many fine books covering the appalling experiences and great courage of the many thousands of POWs captured by the victorious Japanese during late 1941 and early 1942 escape accounts are much rarer This is due in large part to the fact that only a comparatively small number of brave souls attempted to escape to freedom rather than suffer brutality starvation and very possibly death as POWs However as Never Surrender vividly describes there were a significant number who took this desperate course Escapers faced challenges far more daunting than those in German hands They were Westerners in an alien hostile environment the terrain and climate were extreme disease was rife their physical condition was weak there was every chance of starvation and betrayal and if captured they faced at best the harshest punishment and at worst execution The author draws on escape attempts from Hong Kong Thailand the Philippines Borneo and China by officers and men of the British Commonwealth and US armed forces As this superbly researched and uplifting book reveals few escapers found freedom but all are inspiring examples of outstanding and indeed desperate courage The stories told within these pages demonstrate the best and worst of human spirit The Army Quarterly and Defence Journal, 1989 Burma Patricia M. Herbert, 1991
