A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof, 1991 Lesbianism in literature has been dealt with rather indirectly in the past Editors have led readers to the artistry of a work containing lesbianism emphasizing instead the literary history and historical context of the work rather than the representations of lesbianism The editor for Colette's The Pure and the Impure for instance affirms that Colette has a knowledge of a strange sisterhood but assures readers she has never strayed from the normal In the groundbreaking A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof demonstrates that representations of lesbian sexuality occupy specific locations or positions in the arguments subject matter and rhetoric of Western European and American literary criticism She examines the political context of representations how lesbian sexuality is used as a signifier and why it appears when and where it does Roof argues that attempts to depict or explain lesbian sexuality spur anxieties about knowledge and identity In reaction to and denial of these anxieties lesbian sexuality is represented in film literature theory and criticism as foreplay as simulated heterosexuality as erotic excess as joking inauthenticity as artful compromise or as masculine mask in a specific repertoire of neutralization and evasion Challenging the heterosexism of film theory and feminist theory this book analyzes the rhetorical use of lesbian sexuality Roof explores a range of discourses from the works of such authors as Anais Nin Olga Broumas Julia Kristeva Jane Rule Luce Irigaray and Sigmund Freud to films such as Emmanuelle Desert Hearts Entre Nous

and I've Heard the Mermaids Singing to professional tennis

Life Behind the Mask Didier Mouturat, 2016-06-14 You had to decide to let yourself be turned upside down you had to accept to see the idea you had forged about yourself progressively shatter In the summer of 1969 at 19 years old Didier Mouturat gave up on college shattering his parents' hopes that he follow a safe and conventional course Fresh from the wild Parisian student revolt of 1968 with its street battles and slogans he set out to find a life that would be truly alive deciding to be a classical actor When he met Cyrille Dives however the universe of masks quietly turned his world upside down This book describes Mouturat's apprenticeship to a unique theater artist In the 1970s and early 80s Dives created a theater of masks a Western parallel to Japanese Noh Dives was a true bohemian artist a sculptor of masks a painter and theatrical director Cyrille Dives was also a spiritual master Mouturat's apprenticeship encompassed everything from walking in a way that brings a mask to life to cultivating a beginner's mind Slowly and subtly the theater apprenticeship became an encounter with the deeper truth of his own being I am speaking of an intimate progressive discovery that we are not masters of our own being that it is only the result of a system of reactions that tyrannize us Mouturat becomes Dives's right hand man helping establish a theater and a school of masks That work is evident here in enchanting illustrations as well as words Yet as translated by the scholar and author Roger Lipsey Mouturat also offers a pithy chronicle of a search for meaning and inner being
