Latin American Cinema Gabriel Eljaiek-Rodríguez, 2018-09-26 The Migration and Politics of Monsters in Latin America proposes a cinematic cartography of contemporary Latin American horror films that take up the idea of the American continent as a space of radical otherness or monstrosity and use it for political purposes The book explores how Latin American film directors migrate foreign horror tropes to create cinematographic horror hybrids that reclaim and transform monstrosity as a form of historical rewriting By emphasizing the specificities of the Latin American experience this book contributes to broad scholarship on horror cinema at the same time connecting the horror tradition with contemporary discussions on violence migration fear of immigrants and the rewriting of colonial discourses Impossible Monsters

Michael Taylor, 2024-07-16 Vivid with a Mesozoic bestiary Tom Holland this on the ground page turning narrative weaves together the chance discovery of dinosaurs and the rise of the secular age When the twelve year old daughter of a British carpenter pulled some strange looking bones from the country s southern shoreline in 1811 few people dared to question that the Bible told the accurate history of the world But Mary Anning had in fact discovered the first ichthyosaur and over the next seventy five years as the science of paleontology developed as Charles Darwin posited radical new theories of evolutionary biology and as scholars began to identify the internal inconsistencies of the Scriptures everything changed Beginning with the archbishop who dated the creation of the world to 6 p m on October 22 4004 BC and told through the lives of the nineteenth century men and women who found and argued about these seemingly impossible history rewriting fossils Impossible Monsters reveals the central role of dinosaurs and their discovery in toppling traditional religious authority and in changing perceptions about the Bible history and mankind s place in the world
