Currents in the Interpretation of Paul Neil Elliott,2024-09-05 The apostle Paul has long been championed or criticized as a Christian thinker as a brilliant theological genius or an enthusiastic convert who spun arguments to justify his new allegiances In these essays Neil Elliott engages some of the most provocative currents in contemporary scholarship including Paul and the nature of violence the presumptions of religious cultural or national innocence in particular interpretations of the apostle the recent enthusiasm for Paul in some streams of Marxist thought competing construals of economic realities in Paul's day and our own and questions surrounding Paul's legacy today

Paul's 'Spirit of Adoption' in its Roman Imperial Context Robert Brian Lewis,2016-01-28 Robert Lewis examines Paul's use of the phrase Spirit of Adoption in Romans 8:12-17 against the background of its Roman Imperial context in order to shed light on interpretation of Paul's Letter to the Romans Whereas other scholars have explored what Paul may have meant when he uses the term adoption Lewis instead explores the reasons behind Paul's coupling of it with the term spirit Having examined theories for a possible Jewish antecedent for Paul's use of this phrase and found them less than persuasive Lewis unlocks the data within the term's Roman Imperial context that significantly clarifies what Paul means when he uses the phrase Spirit of adoption Lewis shows that when Paul wrote his letter to the Romans adoption had become a feature of Imperial succession Roman religion gave a great deal of prominence to the Roman family spirit the genius The Emperor's genius became identified as a deity in Roman religion and its veneration was widespread in Rome as well as the provinces When Romans 8:12-17 is read against this background a very different kind of exegetical picture emerges agricultural and economic life The Practice of the Body of Christ Colin D. Miller, 2014-09-18 The Practice of the Body of Christ begins a conversation between apocalyptic interpretations of the Apostle Paul and the contemporary revival in virtue ethics. It argues that the human actor's place in Pauline theology has long been captive to theological concerns foreign to Paul and that we can discern in Paul a classical account of human action that Alasdair MacIntyre's work helps to recover. Such an account of agency helps ground an apocalyptic reading of Paul by recovering the centrality of the church and its day-to-day Christic practices specifically but not exclusively the Eucharist. To demonstrate this, Miller first offers a critique of some contemporary accounts of agency in Paul in light of MacIntyre's work. Three exegetical chapters then establish a MacIntyrian rereading of central parts of the letter to the Romans. A concluding chapter offers theological syntheses and prospects for future research.
