R. Reginald,2009-12-01 This was the first bibliography and guide to the American mass market paperback book and it remains one of the most definitive The major index is by author and lists author title publisher book number year of publication and cover price The title index lists titles and authors only The publisher index provides a history of that imprint with addresses number ranges and general physical description of the books issued This is the place that all study of the American paperback must begin The Turquoise Shop (An American Mystery Classic) Frances Crane,2022-09-06 In a small arts community in mid century New Mexico a wealthy patron is accused of murder In a small artsy New Mexico town the arrival of a wealthy stranger from back East is enough to get folks talking Even a few years after Mona Brandon landed in Santa Maria the rumor mill still churns with tid bits about her money her influence and when a corpse is discovered in the nearby desert that may or may not be her husband her secret and suspicious past From the counter at her local jewelry and art shop Jean Holly has a front row seat for all this gossip and more after her acquaintance with Pat Abbott the detective investigating the apparent murder turns romantic With his deductive reasoning and her local knowledge combined they have everything they need to discover whodunnit But will they be able to put the pieces together and solve the mystery before the killer strikes again With characters and a setting inspired by Mabel Dodge Luhan and the Taos art colony The Turquoise Shop is a delightful Golden Age mystery adorned with Southwestern historical detail It is the first novel in the popular and long running Pat and Jean Abbott series which charmed mid century audiences with over twenty five installments and which was adapted for multiple radio programs in the 40s and 50s Books to Die For John Connolly,Declan Burke,2016-10-25 An anthology featuring the world s greatest mystery authors writing about theworld s greatest mystery novels The Best American Noir of the Century James Ellroy,Otto Penzler,2011-10-04 This impressive crime anthology presents a century of American greed crime and comeuppance by some of the genre s greatest authors Publishers Weekly starred review James Ellroy the author of such noir classics as The Black Dahlia and L A Confidential joins forces with award winning editor Otto Penzler to present this treasure trove of stories Ranging from the 1920s to the present day this collection represents noir at its best across a century of literary evolution From the genre s infancy come gems like James M Cain s Pastoral while its postwar heyday boasts giants like Mickey Spillane and Evan Hunter Packing an undeniable punch diverse contemporary incarnations include Elmore Leonard Patricia Highsmith Joyce Carol Oates Dennis Lehane and William Gay with many page turners appearing from the 21st century 100 American Crime Writers S. Powell,2012-08-07 100 American Crime Writers features discussion and analysis of the lives of crime writers and their key works examining the developments in American crime writing from the Golden Age to hardboiled detective fiction This study is essential to scholars and an ideal introduction to crime fiction for anyone who enjoys this fascinating genre Josefina Niggli, Mexican American Writer Elizabeth Coonrod Martinez,2007 The work of one of the earliest Mexican American women writers who focused on life lived between two cultures and nations is the subject of this new literary study The Expendable Man Dorothy B. Hughes,2012-07-03 It was surprising what old experiences remembered could do to a presumably educated civilized man And Hugh Denismore a young doctor driving his mother s Cadillac from Los Angeles to Phoenix is eminently educated and civilized He is privileged would seem to have the world at his feet even Then why does the sight of a few redneck teenagers disconcert him Why is he reluctant to pick up a disheveled girl hitchhiking along the desert highway And why is he the first person the police suspect when she is found dead in Arizona a few days later Dorothy B Hughes ranks with Raymond Chandler and Patricia Highsmith as a master of mid century noir In books like In a Lonely Place and Ride the Pink Horse she exposed a seething discontent underneath the veneer of twentieth century prosperity With The Expendable Man first published in 1963 Hughes upends the conventions of the wrong man narrative to deliver a story that engages readers even as it implicates them in the greatest of all American crimes Crime Fiction since 1800 Stephen Knight,2010-04-09 Since its appearance nearly two centuries ago crime fiction has gripped readers imaginations around the world Detectives have varied enormously from the nineteenth century policemen and a few women through stars like Sherlock Holmes and Miss Marple to newly self aware voices of the present feminist African American lesbian gay postcolonial and postmodern Stephen Knight s fascinating book is a comprehensive analytic survey of crime fiction from its origins in the nineteenth century to the present day Knight explains how and why the various forms of the genre have evolved explores a range of authors and movements and argues that the genre as a whole has three parts the early development of Detection the growing emphasis on Death and the modern celebration of Diversity The expanded second edition has been thoroughly updated in the light of recent research and new developments such as ethnic crime fiction the rise of thrillers in the serial killer and urban collapse modes and feel good cozies It also explores a number of fictional works which have been published in the last few years and features a helpful glossary With full references and written in a highly engaging style this remains the essential short guide for readers of crime fiction everywhere Golden Age Bibliomysteries (An American Mystery Classic) Otto Penzler,2023-07-11 In these classic mystery tales literature is a matter of life or death Of crime fiction s many sub genres none is so reflexive and so intriguing as the bibliomystery stories that involve crimes set somehow in the world of books In Vincent Starrett s A Volume of Poe a bookseller is murdered in Ellery Queen s The Adventure of the Three R s the detective tracks the disappearance of a local Missouri author and a killer stalks the stacks of the New York Public Library in Robert L Blochman s Death Walks in

Marble Halls With fourteen tales of bibliophilic transgression from the Golden Age of the mystery genre the decades between the two World Wars this volume collects stories guaranteed to entertain featuring work from well remembered authors such as Cornell Woolrich and Anthony Boucher and from those that are lesser known today such as Carolyn Wells and James Gould Cozzens Edgar Award winning anthologist editor bookseller and mystery scholar Otto Penzler has focused extensively on the history of the bibliomystery and his expertise shines in this enjoyable collection both in the selection of stories and in the informative and illuminating introductions that accompany each one

Obelists at Sea (An American Mystery Classic) C. Daly King, Martin Edwards, 2023-05-02 C Daly King's debut mystery is a tale of murder travel and psychiatry set aboard a luxury transatlantic liner The smoking room on a transatlantic cruise ship is bound to be a hotbed of activity but it's less common for it to be the site of a murder Yet when the lights flicker aboard the luxury Meganaut making its way from New York to Paris this is precisely what happens in the darkness a gunshot rings out and when the light is restored a man is found dead The situation becomes all the more curious when it's discovered that the deceased had apparently ingested cyanide just seconds before being penetrated by the bullet Luckily for the other passengers there are two detectives aboard the Meganaut ready to leap into action There are also four psychiatrists and those psychiatrists convince the captain to let them take a stab at solving the crime using their professional understanding of the human psyche to determine who could have been capable of such a crime and why But will they be able to deduce the puzzle's solution before the killer strikes again The first of seven novels by psychologist C Daly King Obelists at Sea is intelligent and enjoyable Golden Age mystery fare featuring an atmospheric setting carefully placed clues and a complex whodunnit plot explained with sharp witted ratiocination
