Techniques of Family Psychotherapy Donald Alan Bloch, 1973 Family Therapy Sourcebook, Second Edition Fred P. Piercy, Douglas H. Sprenkle, Joseph L. Wetchler, 1996-10-10 While there are many volumes that survey the field of family therapy Family Therapy Sourcebook provides something different a roadmap to classic and state of the art work on foundational issues in theory research and practice More than a textbook or a summary of primary sources this volume is a comprehensive guide to original source materials for the student or teacher of family therapy Covering the traditional family therapies and more each chapter presents a selective annotated bibliography highlights key concepts and clinical techniques discusses research issues and proposes creative teaching strategies Describing helpful assignments and experiential learning exercises for educators the authors share valuable expertise gained from years of teaching Basic Concepts In Family Therapy Linda Berg-Cross, 2014-05-12 First published in 1987 Basic Concepts in Family Therapy An Introductory Text presents seventeen basic psychological concepts that you may use in understanding your family or if you are a member of the helping professions your clients families Each chapter focuses on a single concept using material from three sources family therapy literature basic psychological and clinical research studies and cross cultural research studies By combining the findings of family therapy practitioners with the empirical findings of basic psychological researchers and cross cultural researchers we can deepen our understanding of the usefulness of each of these constructs as well as their limitations

Handbook of Family Therapy Training and Supervision Howard A. Liddle, Douglas C. Breunlin, Richard C. Schwartz, 1988-06-17 Over the last three decades family therapy has revolutionized the mental health field changing the way human problems are conceived and therapy is conducted In concert with the dynamic growth of family therapy the field of family therapy training and supervision has also expanded enormously yielding many new ideas and skills Yet until now few books have been devoted to it and no single volume has attempted to relate the full breadth of this growing field in terms of its conceptual and theoretical expansion as well as its practical application HANDBOOK OF FAMILY THERAPY TRAINING AND SUPERVISION fills this need by presenting a truly comprehensive view of this dynamic area To accomplish this broad yet in depth scope editors Liddle Breunlin and Schwartz have assembled 30 highly acclaimed authorities to author chapters in their respective areas of expertise For further clarification the editors have included segues that introduce and analyze each of the book s four major sections providing the reader with an overview of the section highlights of themes that run through it and discussion of the issues raised in a way that ties the chapters together The book opens with a presentation of the unique and innovative approaches to training and supervision that have evolved in each separate school of family therapy Offering a panoramic view of the entire field of family therapy these seven chapters allow for fascinating comparisons among the different schools regarding the process by which ideas about therapy evolve into training techniques and philosophies Section II follows with an explication of the pragmatics of family therapy supervision Helping family therapy trainers avoid and anticipate the common mistakes involved with supervision the skills described in this section create an atmosphere conducive to learning and maintaining a working trainer trainee relationship and finally for training of supervisors Practical guidelines for using live and video supervision are included Section III features family therapy trainers in such diverse fields as psychiatry psychology family medicine social work nursing free standing and academic family therapy programs who describe the problems and advantages they encounter teaching these new ideas within their idiosyncratic contexts The book closes with a section that includes reflections on the field by such innovative and respected leaders as Cloe Madanes and Jay Haley Among topics covered are perspectives and recommendations for researchers evaluating family therapy practical advice for incorporating a cultural perspective into training programs feedback on the experience of live supervision from trainees perspectives An appendix follows that provides over 400 references organized by subject for easy reference Given the level and scope of this extraordinary text FAMILY THERAPY TRAINING AND SUPERVISION is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in teaching learning or simply appreciating family therapy

Emergent Methods in Social Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, Patricia Leavy, 2006-02 Introducing state of the art social research methods that address the growing methods theory gap within and across the disciplines this text provides readers with a comprehensive view of new and cutting edge research methods and methodologies

Marriage and Family Therapy Linda Metcalf, 2011-06-23 There are many different models of marriage and family therapy the challenge for students and beginning practitioners is deciding which one best suits their individual purposes This highly practical volume elucidates the defining characteristics of 14 contemporary models including their history views of change views of family and the role of the therapist and methods of assessing family dynamics goal setting facilitating change and knowing when to terminate Each chapter also includes a template for implementing therapy models and realistic case studies many drawn from actual practice to illustrate how each model would address common issues In addition the volume includes extensive interviews with master therapists such as Albert Ellis Insoo Kim Berg Sue Johnson Susan McDaniel Derald Wing Sue and many others They share their ideas of the ways in which change occurs how they set goals and how they perform therapy For further clarification each therapist illustrates how he she would proceed via the same case study Learning how to perform effective family therapy can be an arduous process of trial and error yet this resource will ease the way for students and currently practicing family therapists who need to revisit the basics Modalities Included Bowen Family Systems Theory Contextual Family Therapy Cognitive Behavioral Family Therapy Models Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy Symbolic Experiential Family Therapy Satir Human Validation Process Model Milan Systemic Family Therapy Structural Family Therapy Strategic Family Therapy Solution Focused Brief Therapy with Families Narrative Therapy with Families Emotionally Focused Therapy Medical Family Therapy Family Psychoeducation Key Features Introduces the theory history theoretical assumptions techniques and components of each model Includes a template for using each model from the initial meeting through assessment intervention and termination Provides numerous interviews with master therapists Includes case study commentary and analysis by master therapists Suggests questions therapeutic strategies and or comments to consider for each therapeutic phase Includes a personality inventory to help readers select the most effective modality
