Corporate Governance of Public Enterprises in Transitional Economies Dominique Pannier, 1996-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 323 Draws on the contrasting experiences of five large transitional economies Hungary Poland Romania Russia and Ukraine in the management and oversight of public enterprises Relevant experiences of developed market economies are included Trends in Education Access and Financing During the Transition in Central and Eastern Europe Dena Ringold, 1997-01-01 IFC Results on the Ground No 1 The International Finance Corporation IFC whose primary mission is to encourage economic development in its member countries by supporting the private sector measures its development effectiveness through an annual project review This report the first in a series that examines the IFC's development impact presents five case studies of projects carried out during 1995-96 The projects involved were chosen for their geographic diversity and because they represent a number of sectors in which the IFC has traditionally done business banks in Africa and Latin America an agribusiness project in Madagascar a textile operation in Indonesia and an infrastructure project in Argentina Each of these studies illustrates in detail the various aspects of project contributions of projects to development and some of the residual problems that will be the subject of future work The Niger Household Energy Project Gerald Foley, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 360 Over the last two decades banking systems in Latin America have been subject to considerable banking distress and numerous crises This conference looked at proposals for preventing such episodes The discussions covered the genesis and implications of deposit insurance cum fractional reserve requirements the experience with market based regulations in Chile and in New Zealand and the narrow banking proposal 100 percent reserves on demand deposits with a discussion of how Argentina's path towards this type of banking system helped this country weather its 1995 banking crisis Contributors include central bank presidents Argentina Chile Costa Rica and Nicaragua and directors Colombia heads of regulatory agencies and banking centers Bolivia and Mexico rating agencies Brazil private bankers World Bank economists and academics Agricultural Trade Policies in the Andean Group Tim

Josling,1997-01-01 Chapter on Ecuador offers a comparison with other Andean Pact countries Argues that Ecuador is most in need of stability and security offered by regional market access Handbook of Latin American Studies v 57 The Legal Framework for Water Users' Associations Salman M. A. Salman,1997-01-01 Recent experience confirms that participation of farmers in managing parts of an irrigation system and collecting water charges usually results in a more efficient use of water To be effective farmers in the hydraulic unit would need to organize themselves by establishing a water users association This paper presents a comparative study of the legal framework for these associations in Colombia India Mexico Nepal the Philippines and Turkey Building on the theory that participation of farmers in managing and operating parts of an irrigation system will result in an optimum use of water the document analyzes in a comparative manner how each of these countries addressed the basic aspects related to the establishment and functioning of such associations Additional emphasis is placed on the collection of water charges Civil Service Reform in Francophone Africa 'Ladipo Adamolekun,Guy de Lusignan,Armand Atomate,1997-01-01 The world s financial markets are rapidly integrating into a single global marketplace and developing countries are being drawn into this process starting from different points and moving at various speeds Those with adequate institutions and sound policies in place may proceed smoothly along the road toward financial integration and gain the many benefits that integration can bring Most of the developing economies lack many of the necessary prerequisites for such a move a few are so unprepared that integration may do them more harm than good Developing countries may have little choice about whether to follow this path advances in communications and new developments in finance have made the course inevitable but they may still choose the ways in which they proceed choosing the policies that benefit the economy and averting potential shocks This World Bank report looks at the important challenges both sets of countries face in a new age of global capital The book presents new and compelling evidence that while low interest rates in industrial countries provided an initial impetus to the surge in private capital flows during 1989 93 these flows have entered a new phase driven by increased financial integration The report analyzes the causes and effects of integration with a particular emphasis on how developing countries in the nascent stages of integration can learn from the experiences of the more rapidly integrating developing countries Ecosystem Goods and Services from Plantation Forests Jürgen Bauhus,Markku Kanninen,Peter van der Meer,2010 Plantation forests often have a negative image They are typically assumed to be poor substitutes for natural forests particularly in terms of biodiversity conservation carbon storage provision of clean drinking water and other non timber goods and services Often they are monocultures that do not appear to invite people for recreation and other direct uses Yet as this book clearly shows they can play a vital role in the provision of ecosystem services when compared to agriculture and other forms of land use or when natural forests have been degraded This is the first book to examine explicitly the non timber goods and services provided by plantation forests including soil water and biodiversity conservation as well as carbon sequestration and the provision of local livelihoods The authors show that if we require a higher provision of ecosystem goods and services from both temperate and tropical plantations new approaches to their management are required These include policies methods for valuing the services the practices of small landholders landscape approaches to optimise delivery of goods and services and technical issues about how to achieve suitable solutions at the scale of forest stands While providing original theoretical insights the book also gives guidance for plantation managers policy makers conservation practitioners and community advocates who seek to promote or strengthen the multiple use of forest plantations for improved benefits for society Published with CIFOR Land Degradation in Tanzania Alemneh Dejene, 1997-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 370 Local land users and officials often have conflicting perceptions of and responses to land degradation issues This causes problems for officials in diagnosing and addressing the issue and is a major constraint on the successful implementation of policies and projects to address land degradation This study looks at the perception and response gap between officials and land users in the diagnosis and remedy of land degradation It also examines the dynamics of the loss of soil fertility and low productivity at the village level The study s findings will help shape investment programs to enhance land productivity in Sub Saharan Africa

Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
