Technologies Of The Self A Seminar With Michel Foucault:

Technologies of the Self Michel Foucault, 1988 This volume is a wonderful introduction to Foucault and a testimony to the deep humanity of the man himself Technologies of the Self, 1988 Explorations in Planning Theory Luigi Mazza, 2017-09-29 What is this thing called planning What is its domain What do planners do How do they talk What are the limits and possibilities for planning imposed by power politics knowledge technology interpretation ethics and institutional design In this comprehensive volume the foremost voices in planning explore the foundational ideas and issues of the profession Explorations in Planning Theory is an extended inquiry into the practice of the profession As such it is a landmark text that defines the field for today's planners and the next generation As Seymour J Mandelbaum notes in the introduction the shared framework of these essays captures a pervasive interest in the behavior values character and experience of professional planners at work All of the chapters in this volume are written to address arguments that are important in the community of planning theoreticians and are crafted in the language of that community While many of the contributors included here differ in their styles the editors note that students experienced practitioners and scholars of city and regional planning will find this work illuminating and helpful in their research Sport, Spectacle, and NASCAR Nation J. Newman, M. Giardina, 2011-10-10 Sport Spectacle and NASCAR Nation critically interrogates stockcar racing's ascendance into the upper echelon of the North American sporting popular While most contributions to the public discourse gloss over NASCAR's exclusively white racial identity politics its underlying patriarchal gender politics its overtly conservative political commitment its hyper Christian orthodoxy and its omnipresent commercialism this book connects the dots and critically analyzes the problematic nature of this non natural strategically orchestrated sporting spectacle The Routledge Handbook of Critical Pedagogies for Social Work Christine Morley, Phillip Ablett, Carolyn Noble, Stephen Cowden, 2020-01-20 The Routledge Handbook of Critical Pedagogies for Social Work traverses new territory by providing a cutting edge overview of the work of classic and contemporary theorists in a way that expands their application and utility in social work education and practice thus providing a bridge between critical theory philosophy and social work Each chapter showcases the work of a specific critical educational philosophical and or social theorist including Henry Giroux Michel Foucault Cornelius Castoriadis Herbert Marcuse Paulo Freire bell hooks Joan Tronto Iris Marion Young Karl Marx Antonio Gramsci and many others to elucidate the ways in which their key pedagogic concepts can be applied to specific aspects of social work education and practice The text exhibits a range of research based approaches to educating social work practitioners as agents of social change It provides a robust and much needed alternative paradigm to the technique driven conservative revolution currently being fostered by neoliberalism in both social work education and practice The volume will be instructive for social work educators who aim to teach for social change by assisting students to develop counter hegemonic practices of resistance and agency and reflecting on the pedagogic role of social work practice more widely The volume holds relevance for both postgraduate and undergraduate qualifying social work and human services courses around the world

Mind, Self and Interiority Thomas Duddy, 2017-07-05 Contemporary philosophers of mind often raise serious questions around the concepts of self subjectivity and the inner life on the grounds that such concepts have their origin in a discredited Cartesian metaphysics The contention of this book is that the rejection of interiority and related concepts has been based on a time honoured misreading of Descartes In the course of exposing the misconceived anti Cartesianism of a wide range of thinkers from Wittgenstein and Ryle to Dennett and Foucault an attempt is made to clear a space for a new post Cartesian conception of subjectivity a conception of subjectivity which is consistent with at least some versions of materialism The aim of this book is not to defend Cartesian dualism but to reclaim important concepts that have been anathematized by having been mistakenly associated with it

Governmentality Mitchell Dean, 1999-10-04

Governmentality draws on Foucault s work along with wider analytical frameworks to reclaim centre stage for this sociological concept The author argues for a new understanding of how the individual is related to the state and vice versa

Ontological Aspects of Early Jewish Anthropology Tyson L. Putthoff, 2016-11-28 In Ontological Aspects of Early Jewish Anthropology Tyson L Putthoff explores early Jewish beliefs about how the human self reacts ontologically in God s presence Combining contemporary theory with sound exegesis Putthoff demonstrates that early Jews widely considered the self to be intrinsically malleable such that it mimics the ontological state of the space it inhabits In divine space they believed the self therefore shares in the ontological state of God himself The book is critical for students and scholars alike In putting forth a new framework for conceptualising early Jewish anthropology it challenges scholars to rethink not only what early Jews believed about the self but how we approach the subject in the first place

Universities and Globalization Ravinder

Kaur Sidhu, 2006-08-15 Universities and Globalization To Market To Market examines the operations of power and knowledge in international education under conditions of globalization with a focus on the three biggest exporters of higher education the United States Australia and the United Kingdom An interdisciplinary approach based on the core social sciences is used to explore the power relations that shape global education networks The role of nation states in creating the conditions for education markets and the desire for a Westernized template of international education in the postcolonial world is discussed The volume offers a sophisticated attempt to recast international education as a series of geopolitical and geoeconomic engagements that transcend simple supply and demand dynamics Engaging with the theoretical debates about education and globalization this book examines global cultural flows and boundary crossings the cultural economy of education networks and the possibilities for supra territorial subjectivities International education markets are examined from the perspectives of both first world producers and postcolonial consumers By investigating how first world universities imagine and enact the global in their marketing practices the expressions of cultural diversity valued by education markets and the types of individual and institutional subjectivities merging from markets Universities and Globalization To Market To Market offers students faculty administrators marketing consultants and others who work in the area a highly nuanced account of the global relations fostered by education markets This original critical examination of the forms and cultural politics of international education is a significant contribution to the field Popular Music Autobiography Oliver

Lovesey, 2021-12-02 The 1960s saw the nexus of the revolution in popular music by a post war generation amid demographic upheavals and seismic shifts in technology Over the past two decades musicians associated with this period have produced a large amount of important autobiographical writing This book situates these works in the forms of formal autobiographies and memoirs auto fiction songs and self fashioned museum exhibitions within the context of the recent expansion of interest in autobiography disability and celebrity studies It argues that these writings express anxiety over musical originality and authenticity and seeks to dispel their writers celebrity status and particularly the association with a lack of seriousness These works often constitute a meditation on the nature of postmodern fame within a celebrity obsessed culture and paradoxically they aim to regain the private self in a public forum
