Challenges and Opportunities for Innovation in the Public Works Infrastructure Moonja P. Kim,1993

Enhancing Competitiveness in Small Developing States Robert A Stoddard,2024-08-15 This book is designed to help students practitioners and policy makers gain an understanding of the existential challenges that confront small developing states that have resulted in several economic fallouts to the extent that some countries have experienced the demise of many of their traditional industries It also presents a compendium of approaches tools and policies that can assist in resolving some of the lingering challenges faced by these countries It is envisaged that these approaches will invariably increase their competitiveness and thereby contribute to economic growth The book also analyzed the policy and regulatory environment in several small developing states and has developed approaches that are critical to strengthening the institutional capacity in support of the SME sector This is an imperative in their quest to become more productive and competitive and thereby create opportunities for sustained economic growth Emanating from a regional study of the industrial status in the CARICOM Member States it proposes new and revised approaches to public policy on many development issues The book is replete with insights inspiring real life cases and offers alternative approaches to development

University-Industry R&D Collaboration in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Japan D. Rahm,J. Kirkland,Barry Bozeman,2013-04-17 Over the last several decades there has been a growing interest in Research Development R D policy This is particularly so in advanced industrialized nations that have adopted science and technology based strategies for national economic competitiveness The United States the United Kingdom and Japan the three nations that are the subjects of this book share this policy strategy Each of these nations is committed to harnessing the innovations that stem from scientific and technological advance to promote national economic prosperity Governments can influence their nation s R D effort in three general ways First they can directly fund the R D effort through grants loans appropriations or government contracts Second they can provide tax and financing incentives to encourage higher levels of private sector R D Third they can use their power to create inter organizational collaborations that vastly extend and expand the nation s collective R D effort University industry collaborations are a principal type of these inter organizational R D efforts and the focus of this book

The Competitive Strength of the Information and Communication Industry in Europe H. van Houten,2013-06-29 In front of us lies a rather unique study Unique in respect of both its initiative and its set up This study is the result of a private initiative of an international organization of management consultancy firms It is the first time that such a broad international study was undertaken jointly by individual consulting firms in many different countries Moreover the method used can be characterized as from the bottom up Representatives of almost 100 organizations in seven European countries were interviewed by seven individual management consultancy firms on the basis of their own reputation and contacts Not only the well known multinationals in the information and communication industry participated but also medium sized and small companies as well as government agencies The study focuses on one sector of industry that is considered to be of prime importance for employment in Europe viz the information and communication industry It is generally assumed that important instruments for the stimulation and strengthening of Europe s position in this field are reduction of competition within Europe better coordination of R D efforts improved harmonization of rules standards and regulations better coordination and education programmes increased stimulation and guidance by governments This study puts these assumptions to the test It assesses the state of the art regarding these instruments and identifies the actions needed to improve the present situation
