James Carter,2013-01-11 Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children s authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions The authors featured are Neil Ardley Ian Beck Helen Cresswell Gillian Cross Terry Deary Berlie Doherty Alan Durant Brian Moses Philip Pullman Celia Rees Norman Silver Jacqueline Wilson and Benjamin Zephaniah They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits how they came to be published how they write on a daily basis how a particular book came together a type of writing that they are especially known for Through in depth interviews they each reveal their approach to their craft Much is know and spoken of the product that is the children s book but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction non fiction and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft creativity and process of writing for children More Long and Short Stories Henry Tedeschi,2004-05 Where the previous collection Long and Short Stories ranges from suspense and mystery to whimsical the present stories More Long and Short Stories emphasize the drama and sometimes the comedy of the human condition Each has a different focus from the difficulties inherent in encounters between men and women growing up and aging to the problems of academic life and its frequently unrecognized traumas University Libraries Report University of Colorado Libraries,1995
