Cognitive Behavioural Coaching Pocketbook Dorothy Spry, 2015-09-16. The widespread popularity of coaching in support of workplace performance, leadership development and employee engagement was heavily underscored by the findings of a CIPD Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development survey carried out in 2009 which revealed that 90 per cent of organisations surveyed use coaching techniques. Cognitive Behavioural Coaching (CBC) takes coaching a stage further. It recognises that how people think affects how they feel which in turn influences the decisions and actions they take. Through a systematic process of questioning CBC challenges an individual's limiting beliefs and behaviours and helps them to see and act differently. The Cognitive Behavioural Coaching Pocketbook uses a simple 5 step model to explain in clear practical terms how coaches, L D staff and managers can use CBC for the benefit of both the individual and the organisation.

Types of question are explored with ways in which to use them as well as questions to avoid asking while a helpful example interview shows the techniques in action. Later chapters cover preparing for and conducting the interview including looking at job descriptions and specifications, preparing evidence questions and evaluation of candidates.
